

Mark Beveridge grew up at Westminster and officially joined the church in September, 1963. Through the years, Mark has served the church and participated in many activities including the following: Elder, liturgist, usher under Woodrow Looney, youth Sunday school teacher, confirmand mentor, Outreach Committee, Room in the Inn, Habitat for Humanity, and Hurricane Katrina relief in Mississippi. He currently participates in the Friday morning Bible Study class. Mark has practiced law in Nashville for more than 40 years and serves as Judge of the Belle Meade City Court. He is active in the community in various civic endeavors and bar organizations. Mark and his wife, Nancy, have four children who were baptized and grew up at Westminster (Betsy, Stockton, Glory, and Henry) and four grandchildren.