

Bob Cooper has been a member of Westminster since 1985. Bob has been involved in a number of church activities over the years, including serving as an elder, session member, liturgist, Communion@Home volunteer, and Room in the Inn overnight host. He has also chaired the church personnel and service (now benevolence) committees. He has been involved with Room in the Inn as a board member for many years and currently serves as board chair. Bob is an attorney with a Nashville law firm and has also worked with the State of Tennessee and Metro Nashville. He enjoys hiking and backpacking in his spare time.
