

A lifelong Presbyterian, Julie joined Westminster shortly after moving to Nashville in 1997. She and her husband Tom met in Sunday School, and married at Westminster in 2005. Julie is an elder and currently serves on the Property Committee. She's participated on many committees, and has been an usher/shepherd/wrangler/Sunday School teacher for many years. Julie is excited about serving as a Trustee for a second term. Julie is an Executive Vice President at Healthcare Realty. She and Tom have a 15 year-old daughter who sings in the laudate choir and is active in WPC youth activities.
