

Kathy Billings joined Westminster in 2008. She and her husband, Josh, have three boys Maine, Henry, and Carter all of whom were baptized at Westminster. Kathy grew up in Augusta, GA as a member of Trinity-on-the-Hill UMC. At Westminster she has volunteered as a Shepherd and Sunday School teacher, Vacation Bible School coordinator, and chairman of the Nursery Committee. A graduate of Washington and Lee University and Tulane University, Kathy holds degrees in chemistry and public health. Currently she works at Vanderbilt University Medical Center in the Department of Health Policy and volunteers with Senior Ride Nashville.