

Rhea Bucy and his wife, Carole, joined Westminster early in 1975, and have been active members ever since. Rhea has served two previous terms on the Session, and one as Clerk of Session. In past years he has served on various committees of the Session, taught Sunday School, and served as Westminster's representative to the boards of various non-profits. Most recently, Rhea has worked with some of the crews from Westminster devoted to the Waverly flood clean-up. Rhea and Carole – also a member of the College of Elders – raised their two children, John and Ellen, at Westminster. Since 1974, Rhea has been active in the private practice of law in Nashville. A lifelong Tennessean, he is an avid hiker and backpacker.
