

Sarah Gay and her husband, James, joined Westminster in 2015. They have 3 boys, Field (6), Henry (4), and Mac (1.5), who all have attended or attend WSYC. Sarah Gay is originally from Midway, KY, where she grew up in a small Presbyterian church. She graduated from Wake Forest University and has a Master's in Higher Education Administration from Vanderbilt University. After working in development and admissions at Vanderbilt and Battle Ground Academy, she now stays home with her boys. She has taught Sunday School, is on the Families with Young Children committee, and is an active participant in her HOST group and the Young Families Sunday School class.
