

Ken Larish was baptized, confirmed and married at Westminster, and originally began attending Westminster during the mid 1970's. Ken attended college at Southern Methodist University in Dallas, Texas, and law school at Lewis & Clark in Portland, Oregon. After many years away, Ken and his wife, Trisi, rejoined Westminster in 2002. Both their sons, Jack and Luke, were confirmed at Westminster. Ken served for a short time on the finance committee and served for years as an usher. Additionally, he has served on a search committee and is currently a mentor to a Westminster confirmand. He is CEO of The Mainland Companies, and enjoys hiking, trail-running and downhill skiing.