

Nan was raised in the Presbyterian tradition in Virginia. She served as Elder and taught Sunday school at Galax Presbyterian Church, Galax, VA, where she and her husband Duane practiced diagnostic radiology for 20 years. After moving to Franklin, TN, in 2002, Nan joined Westminster Presbyterian Church in 2005. She has served in the Choir since 2005. Nan has completed the Disciple series and led a Choir Sunday school class for 2 years. She is currently co-leading the Daybreak Believers Bible Study group. She is honored to be considered for the office of Elder at Westminster.