GATHERING

(Silence during the Prelude is requested in preparation for worship.)

PRELUDE “Nun komm, der Heiden Heiland” BWV 659 J.S. Bach
(Come, Redeemer of Mankind)

LIGHTING OF THE ADVENT WREATH

*As the light is brought into the Sanctuary, and the candles on the Advent wreath are lighted,
the congregation is invited to sing the following:*

About the Prelude

The Prelude is a musical offering to help move the hearts and minds of the gathering community from the daily struggles of life to the worship of God.

HYMN 90

WAIT FOR THE LORD

Wait for the Lord, whose day is near.

Wait for the Lord; be strong; take heart!

“Advent” means coming or arrival. The season of Advent begins with an emphasis on final things (eschatology). We watch and pray with expectant hope for the establishment of God’s justice and the return of the Prince of Peace. As the weeks of Advent progress, the focus shifts to thanks and praise for the birth of the one who has already come - Jesus Christ our Savior.

The primary symbolism of the Advent candles has to do with light growing in darkness - leading up to the coming of Jesus Christ, the light of the world.

*CALL TO WORSHIP

Let us worship God!

(Those who are able may stand.)

A voice cries out in the wilderness:

“Prepare the way of the Lord.”

A choir sings in the silence,

“Come, Emmanuel.”

Every valley shall be filled.

Every heart shall be made whole,

for peace is stronger than turmoil, and love is louder than hate.

*PRAYER OF THE DAY

The Lord be with you. And also with you.

Laboring God,
with axe and winnowing fork you clear a holy space where hurt and destruction have no place,
and a little child holds sway.
Clear our lives of hatred and despair,
sow seeds of joy and peace,
that shoots of hope may spring forth and we may live in harmony with one another. Amen.

The Cross and Bible lead the procession, symbolic of the centrality in worship of Jesus Christ—the Living Word, and the Bible—the written Word.

*PROCESSIONAL HYMN 83

STUTTGART

About Hymn 83

Come, Thou Long-Expected Jesus

With its opening "Come," this hymn sounds the note of entreaty and invitation that characterizes the Advent season (from the Latin adventus = "coming"). Its blending of memory and hope helps us to give voice to our present faith as we stand between the past and the future. TEXT: Charles Wesley, 1744; MUSIC: Witt's Psalmodia Sacra, 1715, alt.

CALL TO CONFESSION

We, who have stood in the refreshing waters of baptism, often forget our need to be cleansed.
We, who have heard the voice of love,
often speak with anger and meanness to others.
God calls us to be wise enough to change our ways.

In faith and penitence, let us confess our sin
before God and one another.

PRAYER OF CONFESSION

God of all creation,
your vision of peace is beyond our knowing.
We have been hurt
and we have seen destruction,
so we turn around and hurt others,
destroying what you have called good.
Forgive us,
and fill us with your knowledge,
so we may help bring forth
your peaceful kingdom. Amen.

(Silent confession)

Call to and Prayer of Confession

A call to confession expresses God's initiative in calling for repentance and promising forgiveness in Christ. As members of Christ's body, we confess the reality of sin, captivity, and brokenness in personal and common life and ask for God's saving grace.

About the Kyrie

The Kyrie (Greek "kyrios" [Lord]) is a corporate musical prayer for grace.

Kyrie

James MacMillan

(Sung responsively by the choir and congregation)

Assurance of Pardon

A declaration of forgiveness proclaims the good news of God's mercy and offers the assurance of pardon in Jesus' name. The liturgist pours water into the font, which reminds us of the grace and cleansing of our Baptism, and the baptismal call to new life in Christ.

Believe the Good News:
In Jesus Christ we are forgiven!

*The Peace

Since God in Christ has forgiven us, let us also forgive one another.

The peace of Christ be with you. And also with you.

*(Please exchange the peace with the words,
"The peace of Christ be with you.")*

*ACT OF PRAISE

WINCHESTER NEW

All praise to You, eternal Son, Whose advent has our freedom won,
Whom with the Father we adore,
And Holy Spirit, evermore.

SERMON

“No better time!”

Donovan Drake

(A moment for meditation)

“Lord Jesus, come soon!” which we sing responsively in our worship services during Advent, comes directly from 1 Corinthians 16:22. It is one of the oldest prayers of the Christian Church. It expresses the deepest longing of the Christian – that the Lord will come to us and to our world, bringing the fullness of the peace, joy and healing that God has promised.

Affirmation of Faith

Responding to the word proclaimed, we affirm our faith in the holy, triune God. The affirmation of faith is drawn from sentences of scripture or the creeds, confessions, and catechisms.

AFFIRMATION OF FAITH

Out of Israel, God in due time raised up Jesus.
His faith and obedience were the response of the perfect child of God.
He was the fulfillment of God's promise to Israel,
the beginning of the new creation,
and the pioneer of the new humanity.
He gave history its meaning and direction and called the church to be his servant for the reconciliation of the world.

(Adapted from the Confession of 1976, 9.19)

THE EUCHARIST

OFFERING

Anthem (8:30 a.m.)

William Rowan

Prepare, prepare the way of the Lord! Prepare the way!
Make straight his path. Prepare the way!

Every valley shall be exalted, every hill made low;
And the crooked shall be made straight, and the rough places plain.
And the glory of the Lord shall be revealed, and all mankind shall see it together. Prepare the way of the Lord!
Prepare the way! Make straight his path. (Isaiah 40:4-5)

Anthem (11:00 a.m.)

The Dream Isaiah Saw

Glen Rudolph

Lions and oxen will sleep in the hay, leopards will join with the lambs as they play,
wolves will be pastured with cows in the glade,
blood will not darken the earth that God made.
Little child whose bed is straw, take new lodgings in my heart.
Bring the dream Isaiah saw: life redeemed from fang and claw.

Peace will pervade more than forest and field:
God will transfigure the Violence concealed deep in the heart and in systems of gain, ripe for the judgment the Lord will ordain.
Little child whose bed is straw, take new lodgings in my heart.
Bring the dream Isaiah saw: justice purifying law.

To GIVE, please scan

Nature reordered to match God's intent, nations obeying the call to repent,
all of creation completely restored, filled with the knowledge and love of the Lord.
Little child whose bed is straw, take new lodgings in my heart.
Bring the dream Isaiah saw: knowledge, wisdom, worship, awe.

DOXOLOGY

LASST UNS ERFREUEN

Praise God, from whom all blessings flow; Praise God, all creatures here below: Alleluia! Alleluia!
Praise God, the source of all our gifts!
Praise Jesus Christ, whose power uplifts!
Praise the Spirit, Holy Spirit! Alleluia! Alleluia! Alleluia!

PREPARATION OF THE LORD'S TABLE

INVITATION

GREAT PRAYER OF THANKSGIVING

The Lord be with you. And also with you.
Lift up your hearts. We lift them up to the Lord.

Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.
It is right to give our thanks and praise.

God of Wonder: your Spirit did not rest...
the very nearness of your kingdom.

Therefore we praise you,
joining our voices with the celestial choirs and with all the faithful of every time and place, who forever sing to the glory of your name:

Ho - ly, ho - ly, ho - ly Lord, God of pow-er and might, _____ Bless - ed is he who comes in the name of the Lord. Ho - heav-en and earth are full of your glo-ry. Ho - san - na in the high - est.
san - na in the high - est, ho san - na in the high - est.

(The congregation may be seated.)

Holy are you, God of all creation... so we might dance in your life forever.

Even now, as we prepare to celebrate his birth, and ache for his return, great is the mystery of faith:

Come to us in these moments, God of Advent... from the violence of war and fear.

Then, when all time has ended,
all pain and hurt is gone,
you will welcome everyone to your Table,
where we can sing, "Glory!" with one voice to Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.

THE LORD'S PRAYER

(Singing together, see the inside back cover of your hymnal.)

Music during Communion

Anthem (8:30 a.m.)

Michael Praetorius

Lo, How a Rose E'er Blooming

The rose of which I'm singing, Isaiah had foretold.
He came to us through Mary Who sheltered him from cold.
Through God's eternal will.
This child to us was given At midnight calm and still.

Peace, peace, wonderful peace; Peace to the world is given.
 Hushed are the angels, so still is the night;
 Then in the East shone a heavenly light.
 Join in the chorus, his praises sing!
 Glory to God, to the newly born King.

Peace, peace, wonderful peace; Peace to the world is given.

Peace, peace, bearer of peace, All of goodwill receive him.
 Holiest of nights, O most wond'rous of days;

Shepherds and kings lift their voices in praise.
 Join in the chorus, His praises sing!
 Glory to God, to the newly born King.

Peace, peace, wonderful peace; Peace to the world is given.

POSTLUDE Savior of the Nations, Come arr. Paul Manz
(Nun komm, der Heiden Heiland)

(Those who are able may stand.)*

About Hymn 163

While all four gospels identify John the Baptist with a prophecy of Isaiah 40:3, this text (well set to a vigorous Welsh tune) draws on the report of his preaching in Matthew 3:1-12. The final lines recall that he was the first to name Jesus "the lamb of God" (John 1:29, 36). TEXT: Carl P. Daw, Jr., 1985; MUSIC: Joseph Parry, 1876.

The Postlude is considered the final Alleluia of worship.

OUR MISSION

Ordinary people testifying to the extraordinary light found in our Lord Jesus Christ.

“For it is the God who said, ‘Let light shine out of darkness,’ who has shone in our hearts to give the light of the knowledge of the glory of God in the face of Jesus Christ. But we have this treasure in clay jars, so that it may be made clear that this extraordinary power belongs to God and does not come from us.”

GENEROSITY

“You are the light of the world”.

Matthew 5:14

The last few years have certainly, if nothing else, changed our routines.

We have gone from being a very scheduled people with set ways of living our lives that included familiar patterns and expectations, to people that somehow managed to deviate from the charted course and find a new horizon.

Westminster has reminded us that God is always showing us new opportunities to give back, new dreams we build together, and how we have the power to be a light to the world. We have seen that very light reflecting back on us - reminding us that we need each other; that we are better together, united in our hope of a new Heaven and a new Earth. God has shown us a different way - of connecting the seemingly scattered dots in our lives to create one beautiful bigger picture. Your generosity has helped maintain our partnerships in ministry, provided new ways of supporting one another, and allowed us to experience unexpected joy when God uses us to help someone realize something they never thought was possible.

As we close out the calendar year, we offer a reminder that our 2023 pledge campaign is ongoing. Your participation is appreciated and you are needed.

We also invite you to complete your pledge payment for our 2022 campaign as soon as possible. We are almost there, but we cannot do this without you! Your generosity allows Westminster to connect our heart's desire and God's intentions. If you haven't seen the video on our web page, please check it out. You will see how your generosity has provided an opportunity through one ministry partner - Westminster Home Connection - to make dreams a reality - together.

Hymn #2

163 Wild and Lone the Prophet's Voice

1 Wild and lone the proph-et's voice ech-oes through the des - ert still,
2 "Bear the fruit re - pen-tance sows: lives of jus - tice, truth, and love.
3 With such preach-ing, stark and bold, John pro-claimed sal - va - tion near, call - ing us to make a choice, bid - ding us to do God's will:

Trust no oth - er claim than those; set your heart on things a - bove.
and his time-less warn-ings hold words of hope to all who hear.

"Turn from sin and be bap-tized; cleanse your heart and mind and soul.
Soon the Lord will come in power, burn-ing clean the thresh-ing floor:
So we dare to jour-ney on, led by faith through ways un - trod,

Quit-ting all the sins you prized, yield your life to God's con - trol.
then will flames the chaff de - vour; wheat a - lone shall fill God's store."
till we come at last like John to be - hold the Lamb of God.
