GATHERING

(Silence during the Prelude is requested in preparation for worship.)

About the Prelude

The Prelude is a musical offering to help move the hearts and minds of the gathering community from the daily struggles of life to the worship of God. Less well known than the Toccata movement that follows it, this peaceful Adagio is played on the string stops with a melody played in the pedals.

Worship on the Lord's Day

Worship begins as the people gather - greeting one another, praying in silence, or offering music to the glory of God. The act of assembling in Jesus' name bears witness to the Church's identity and mission as Christ's body in the world.

About Hymn 19

Although it uses remarkably simple language, this text affirms a great mystery: beyond all our powers of explanation, God holds together all the opposites that seem to pull us in one direction or another. ? Yet God is present to them all and also to us; for that we give praise. TEXT and MUSIC: Natalie Sleeth, 1973.

PRELUDE

Adagio from Symphonie V

Charles-Marie Widor

*CALL TO WORSHIP

Let us worship God!

(Those who are able may stand.)

With what shall we come before the Holy One, and bow ourselves before God on high?
God has shown us what is good.

What does the Holy One require of us?
To do justice, and to love kindness, and to walk humbly with our God.

(Micah 6:6, 8)

*PRAYER OF THE DAY

The Lord be with you. And also with you.

Holy God,
you challenge the ruling powers of this world and show favor to the lowly.
Make us hunger and thirst for righteousness,
and keep us steady in seeking peace,
that we may be your faithful children and know the blessedness of your kingdom, through Jesus Christ. Amen.

(The Cross and Bible lead the procession, symbolic of the centrality in worship of Jesus Christ - the Living Word, and the Bible - the written Word.)

*PROCESSIONAL HYMN 19

GOD OF GREAT AND SMALL

God of Great and God of Small

CALL TO CONFESSION

Trust in the One who made us and redeemed us.

Let us confess our sin.

PRAYER OF CONFESSION

Surprising God,
you have made foolish the wisdom of the world,
teaching that the meek shall inherit the earth and heaven belongs to those who suffer for the sake of justice.
But we cling to the values of this world,
things that enhance our status but cheat our souls.
We seek comfort in simple answers and easy outs.
We disregard the marginalized and mock weakness, forgetting that Christ lifted up the lowly and made a home among the vulnerable.
God of blessing,
reorient our hearts, and renew our minds,
so that we might act with justice, practice kindness,
and - in all things - walk humbly with you. Amen.

(Silent confession)

Kyrie

Hal H. Hopson

(Sung responsively by the choir and congregation)

Lord, have mercy. Lord, have mercy.
Christ, have mercy. Christ, have mercy.
Lord, have mercy. Lord, have mercy.

ASSURANCE OF PARDON

Believe the Good News:
In Jesus Christ we are forgiven!

The Peace

Since God in Christ has forgiven us, let us also forgive one another.

The peace of Christ be with you. And also with you.

*(Please exchange the peace with the words,
"The peace of Christ be with you.")*

Call to and Prayer of Confession

Having praised the holiness of God, we must also face the errant state of the world and of our lives, confessing our unworthiness to enter into God's presence. Still, we approach God with confidence, trusting in the mercy of Jesus Christ. This turn from communal praise to corporate confession, established on the promise of God's grace, is one of the hallmarks of the Reformed tradition.

Assurance of Pardon

A declaration of forgiveness proclaims the good news of God's mercy and offers the assurance of pardon in Jesus' name. The liturgist pours water into the font, which reminds us of the grace and cleansing of our Baptism, and the baptismal call to new life in Christ.

Scripture

The scriptures bear witness to the word of God, revealed most fully in Jesus Christ, the Word who "became flesh and lived among us." (John 1:14) Where the word is read and proclaimed, Jesus Christ the living Word is present by the power of the Holy Spirit. Therefore, reading, hearing, preaching, and affirming the word are central to Christian worship and essential to the Service for the Lord's Day.

About Psalm 15, Hymn 419

Although Psalm 15 is sometimes said to reflect a ritual entrance to the Temple, it is better understood as a sketch of how to live in a manner that reflects God's values rather than self-centeredness. Those who faithfully entrust themselves to God will never be disappointed. TEXT: Christopher L. Webber, 1986; MUSIC: Roy Hopp, 1992.

About Hymn 769

This hymn from a noted New Zealand hymnwriter affirms that God's hospitality transcends the barriers erected by human society and that we who have been created in God's image are called to live in ways that reflect our Creator's values: justice and joy, compassion and peace. TEXT: Shirley Erena Murray, 1998; MUSIC: Brian Mann, 2006.

ACT OF PRAISE

Celtic Alleluia

O'Carroll/Walker

(The congregation sings with the choir.)

The Word of the Lord lasts forever.
What is the Word that is living?
It is Jesus Christ, who is risen from the dead.

SACRAMENT OF BAPTISM (11:00 a.m.)

Presentation

Hear the words of our Lord Jesus Christ...

Obedying the word of our Lord Jesus, and confident of his promises,
we baptize those whom God has called.

In baptism God claims us and seals us to show that we belong to God.
God frees us from sin and death, uniting us with Jesus Christ in his death and resurrection.

By water and the Holy Spirit,
we are made members of the Church,
the body of Christ, and joined to Christ's ministry of love, peace, and justice.

Let us remember with joy our own baptism, as we celebrate this sacrament.

Questions to the Parents, Congregation and Children of the Church

Profession of Faith

Through baptism we enter the covenant...

With the whole Church, let us confess our faith.

Do you believe in God, the Father almighty?

I believe in God, the Father almighty, creator of heaven and earth.

Do you believe in Jesus Christ?

I believe in Jesus Christ, God's only Son, our Lord, who was conceived by the Holy Spirit,
born of the Virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, died, and was buried;
he descended to the dead.

On the third day he rose again;
he ascended into heaven;

To GIVE, please scan
the QR code below:

he is seated at the right hand of the Father;
and he will come to judge the living and the dead.

Do you believe in the Holy Spirit?

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the holy catholic Church,
the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins,
the resurrection of the body, and the life everlasting.
Amen.

Thanksgiving over the Water

The Lord be with you. And also with you.

Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.
It is right to give our thanks and praise.

Eternal and gracious God...lives and reigns forever. Amen.

The Baptism

Welcome

With joy and thanksgiving, we welcome you into the body of Christ.

Live as a child of the light and let your light shine before others. Amen.

Baptismal Anthem (11:00 a.m.)

John Arnn

Loving Shepherd of thy sheep, Keep thy lambs in safety keep;
Nothing can thy pow'r withstand,
None can pluck them from thy hand.

May they praise thee ev'ry day,
Gladly all thy will obey;
Like thy blessed ones above,
Happy in thy precious love.

Loving Shepherd ever near Teach thy lambs thy voice to hear;
Suffer not their steps to stray from the straight and narrow way.

Where thou leadest may they go,
Walking in thy steps below.
Then, before thy Father's throne,
Savior, claim them for thine own.

PRAYERS OF THE PEOPLE (8:30 a.m.)

The Lord be with you. And also with you.
Lift up your hearts. We lift them up to the Lord.

THANKSGIVING

OFFERING

Anthem (8:30 a.m.)

David Haas

Blest are they, the poor in spirit Theirs is the kingdom of God
Blest are they, full of sorrow They shall be consoled
Rejoice and be glad Blessed are you; holy are you Rejoice and be glad Yours is the Kingdom of God

Blest are they, the lowly ones They shall inherit the earth
Blest are they, who hunger and thirst They shall have their fill Rejoice and be glad...

Blest are they who show mercy Mercy shall be theirs
Blest are they, the pure of heart They shall see God
Rejoice and be glad...

Blest are they who seek peace They are the children of God
Blest are they who suffer in faith The glory of God is theirs
Rejoice and be glad...

Blest are you who suffer hate All because of me
Rejoice and be glad, yours is the kingdom Shine for all to see
Rejoice and be glad...

Anthem (11:00 a.m.)

Craig Phillips

Blessed are the poor in spirit, for theirs is the kingdom of heav'n.
Blessed are those who mourn, for they shall be comforted.
Blessed are the meek, for they shall inherit the earth.
Blessed are those who hunger and thirst for righteousness, for they shall be satisfied.
Blessed are the merciful, for they shall obtain mercy.
Blessed are the pure in heart, for they shall see God.
Blessed are the peacemakers,
for they shall be called children of God.
Blessed are those who are persecuted for righteousness sake, for theirs is the kingdom of heav'n.
Blessed are you when men revile you and persecute you and utter all manner of evil against you falsely for my sake.
Rejoice, rejoice and be glad,
for great is your reward in heav'n. Alleluia, alleluia!

Doxology

A short hymn of praise to the triune God (God, Jesus Christ, Holy Spirit).

Prayer of Thanksgiving

God's grace elicits our heartfelt gratitude. We respond to the good news of forgiveness with joyful acclamations of praise!

About Hymn 739

Merely longing for a restored relationship with God is not enough; real repentance requires amendment of life (stanza 3). The similarity of stanzas 1 and 4 suggests both continuity and improvement. This tune was one of the new common tunes in the Scottish Psalter of 1635. TEXT: William Cowper, 1769; MUSIC: Scottish Psalter, 1635.

About the Postlude

The Postlude is considered the final Alleluia of worship. Following the exposition, episodes and subject entries on the manuals comprise a lengthy section that anticipates the exciting re-entry of the subject in the pedal line, leading to a virtuosic conclusion.

LASST UNS ERFREUEN

Praise God, from whom all blessings flow; Praise God, all creatures here below: Alleluia! Alleluia!
Praise God, the source of all our gifts!
Praise Jesus Christ, whose power uplifts!
Praise the Spirit, Holy Spirit! Alleluia! Alleluia! Alleluia!

PRAYER OF THANKSGIVING

The Lord be with you. And also with you.
Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.
It is right to give our thanks and praise.

God of majesty and light,
you hold the world in your hand.
We praise you that in Jesus Christ
all people may see your glory.
We thank you for revealing Jesus to be your Son, and for claiming our lives in baptism
to be his glad disciples.
By your Spirit,
may peace descend upon us that we may follow him with grateful hearts.
Take us and all we have to be useful in your service,
God of all nations,
in the gracious name of Jesus Christ, your Son,
by the power of your Holy Spirit,
now and forever. Amen.

Our Mission

Ordinary people testifying to the extraordinary light found in our Lord Jesus Christ.

“For it is the God who said, ‘Let light shine out of darkness,’ who has shone in our hearts to give the light of the knowledge of the glory of God in the face of Jesus Christ. But we have this treasure in clay jars, so that it may be made clear that this extraordinary power belongs to God and does not come from us.”

GENEROSITY 2023

"You are the light of the world."
Matthew 5:14

The hopeful sunshine peaking through the clouds on these winter days displays the beauty of God's creation all around us. Our Lenten roses are eager to show signs of new growth and the crocuses are waiting patiently just below the surface - to surprise us with hope in the early spring. Just as nature buzzes with hopeful activity, so too, does our church campus bustle with diverse happenings. On any given day, we can find book discussions and documentaries on moral leadership. Our children are in nursery school while our teens and tweens meet in Youth Council to plan activities with children from Preston Taylor Ministries. From choir rehearsals to Changing Gears luncheons (even an up-close-and-personal organ demonstration), there are signs of your investment all over this campus and beyond. Our varied and creative ministries are possible because of your generous investment in Westminster. Your gifts offer us community, fellowship and above all, hope.

Our 2023 generosity campaign celebrates the impact of your time, talent, and treasure in allowing us to be a light to the world. If you have forgotten to make your pledge, it is not too late. Please send in your contribution as soon as possible and help us achieve our campaign goal of $3,200,000. We are so close - over 91% of the way there! We need everyone's help. Please join us in bringing the light to others and bringing them home. With blessings and gratitude,

JOINING THE JOURNEY: Understanding Memory Loss and Means of Caregiving Support

Four-Week Class Series on Zoom
Feb. 6, 13, 27, and March 6
7:00 PM

Is one of your loved ones dealing with memory loss? This is a difficult challenge for everyone involved. Fortunately, our Congregational Care Committee has connected with a local expert who runs workshops and has an abundance of educational material and resources for caregivers. We will be partnering with Lynn Wood of Mental Health America to host four Zoom sessions designed for family members and friends learning to live with the joys and challenges of caregiving when memory loss enters a loved one's life, and thus the family.

Each Zoom session will be approximately one hour and will include time for questions and answers. Each week builds on the previous. If you need to miss a session, each will be recorded and available for viewing before the next class in the series.

To sign up for this FREE four-week series, contact Emily Anderson: 615-579-0870, emilyandersonart32@gmail.com.

- Each year, an estimated 6.8 million people in the U.S. donate blood.
- Type O negative red cells can be given to patients of all blood types. Because only 7% of people in the U.S. are type O negative, it's always in great demand and often in short supply.

Hymn 1

God of Great and God of Small 19

1 God of great and God of small, God of one and God of all,
2 God of land and sky and sea, God of life and des - ti - ny,
3 God of si - lence, God of sound, God by whom the lost are found,
4 God of heaven and God of earth, God of death and God of birth,

God of weak and God of strong, God to whom all things be - long,
God of nev - er - end - ing power, yet be - side me ev - ery hour,
God of day and dark - est night, God whose love turns wrong to right,
God of now and days be - fore, God who reigns for - ev - er - more,

Hymn #2

769

For Everyone Born

1 For ev - ery - one born, a place at the ta - ble,
2 For wom - an and man, a place at the ta - ble,
3 For young and for old, a place at the ta - ble,
4 For just and un - just, a place at the ta - ble,
5 For ev - ery - one born, a place at the ta - ble,

for ev - ery - one born, clean wa - ter and bread,
re - vis - ing the roles, de - cid - ing the share,
a voice to be heard, a part in the song,
a - bus - er, a - bused, with need to for - give,
to live with - out fear, and sim - ply to be, a shel - ter, a space, a safe place for grow - ing, with wis - dom and grace, di - vid - ing the pow - er,

the hands of a child in hands that are wrin - kled,
in an - ger, in hurt, a mind - set of mer - cy,
to work, to speak out, to wit - ness and wor - ship,

for ev - ery - one born, a star o - ver - head,
for wom - an and man, a sys - tem that's fair,
for young and for old, the right to be - long,
for just and un - just, a new way to live,
for ev - ery - one born, the right to be free,
