

Don Schulze and his wife Ann have attended Westminster since early 2011. Don currently co-teaches the 7th grade Sunday School class, is one of a cadre of church bus drivers for RITI, and participates in the Friday morning men's Bible Study. In the past, he has served on an associate pastor nominating committee, as a member of the Visioning committee, and has helped out with Joy in Learning (primarily on the playground).

Don and Ann moved to Nashville from southern CA in December 2010. Don grew up in Atlanta, GA. He is a retired business manager who enjoys volunteering here in Nashville. Don mediates civil disputes at General Sessions court through Nashville Conflict Resolution Center, and is a tutor at Hillwood High School.
