

Joanna Hall and her husband Anders joined Westminster in 2014 after relocating from North Carolina. Since that time, she has engaged in the life of the church in several ways, including teaching Sunday School, serving on the Youth and Families Committee, and participating in several bible studies.

An active community volunteer, Joanna serves on the boards of Park Center, The Women's Fund, and University School of Nashville. She and Anders have three children, Latham, a freshman at Duke University, Stewart, a 10th grader at USN, and Charlie, an 8th grader at USN.
