

Nathan has been a Westminster member since 1980. He has served on a heavenly host of committees, served on the Session, and taught Sunday School, most notably with the fifth graders, where he learned far more than he taught. He has served as a lay liturgist, has avoided serious injury on Habitat job sites, and has spent the night with our Room in the Inn guests. Nathan practices law in the Nashville office of Bradley Arant Boult Cummings. He is the father of Todd and grandfather of Maggie and has twin stepsons, Barrett and Jordan, and two granddogs. He is married to Connie, who is very patient as well as a recovering Methodist.
