The family moved around the U.S. while Tee was a Marine Corps officer, graduate student, and investment banker. In 2018 they moved back to Nashville and were thrilled to baptize their youngest child Witt at WPC in 2020. Tee joined PathGroup, the country's largest private provider of Pathology and lab services, and currently serves as the company's Senior VP of Development. Caroline is active in the children's schools - St. Georges and Ensworth - while Tee volunteers for Church security on Sundays.
