CHORAL INTROIT

This is the Day

Hal H. Hopson

This is the day which the Lord has made.

Let us rejoice and be glad in it. Alleluia!

*CALL TO WORSHIP

Let us worship God!

(Those who are able may stand.)

The Lord is risen! Alleluia!

Alleluia! The Lord is risen indeed!

Remember all that Jesus has said and done;

In Christ the promises of God are fulfilled.

*PRAYER OF THE DAY

The Lord be with you. And also with you.

Glory to you, O God:

on this day you won victory over death,

raising Jesus from the grave and giving us eternal life.

Glory to you, O Christ:

for us and for our salvation you overcame death and opened the gate to everlasting life.

Glory to you, O Holy Spirit:
you lead us into the truth.
Glory to you, O Blessed Trinity,
now and forever. Amen.

EASTER HYMN

About Hymn 232

Jesus Christ Is Risen Today

CALL TO CONFESSION

The proof of God's amazing love is this:
While we were sinners, Christ died for us.

Because we have faith in him,
we dare to approach God with confidence.

(Romans 5:8; Hebrews 4:16)

In faith and penitence, let us confess our sin before God and one another.

PRAYER OF CONFESSION

Lord, you are our strength and our might;
you have become our salvation. Alleluia!
We praise you, living God.
We who were dead have been raised with Christ, and we seek the things that are above, where Christ is.
We do so imperfectly, Lord – bearing wounds of our own, hindered by doubt and fear, unsure where to look for you,
still tempted to sin.

This day we rejoice in the pardon and the hope you give to us.
Dry our tears, O God.
Speak to us a word that reveals your presence.
Open to us the gates of righteousness that we may enter through them, giving thanks and praise to you.

(Silent confession)

It seems likely that this beloved Easter text began in Latin and moved through German before reaching English, where it combined with the present tune in the emerging English evangelical style, a reaction to the restrained one-note-per-syllable psalmody that preceded it.
TEXT: Stanzas 1-3, Lyra Davidica, 1708; stanza 4, Charles Wesley, 1740; MUSIC: Lyra Davidica, 1708; adapt. from The Compleat Psalmody, 1749.

About the Kyrie

The Kyrie (Greek "kyrios" [Lord]) is a corporate musical prayer for grace.

Assurance of Pardon

A declaration of forgiveness proclaims the good news of God's mercy and offers the assurance of pardon in Jesus' name. The liturgist pours water into the font, which reminds us of the grace and cleansing of our Baptism, and the baptismal call to new life in Christ.

Kyrie

Hal H. Hopson

(Sung responsively by the choir and congregation)

Lord, have mercy. Lord, have mercy.
Christ, have mercy. Christ, have mercy.
Lord, have mercy. Lord, have mercy.

ASSURANCE OF PARDON

Believe the Good News:
In Jesus Christ we are forgiven!

The Peace

Since God in Christ has forgiven us, let us also forgive one another.

The peace of Christ be with you. And also with you.

*(Please exchange the peace with the words,
"The peace of Christ be with you.")*

ACT OF PRAISE

SERMON

“When Life Takes a Turn”

Donovan Drake

(A moment for meditation)

Affirmation of Faith

Responding to the word proclaimed, we affirm our faith in the holy, triune God. The affirmation of faith is drawn from sentences of scripture or the creeds, confessions, and catechisms.

AFFIRMATION OF FAITH

In life and in death we belong to God.
Through the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ,
the love of God,
and the communion of the Holy Spirit,
we trust in the one triune God, the Holy One of Israel, whom alone we worship and serve.

We trust in Jesus Christ, fully human, fully God.
Jesus proclaimed the reign of God:
preaching good news to the poor and release to the captives, teaching by word and deed and blessing the children, healing the sick and binding up the brokenhearted, eating with outcasts,
forgiving sinners,
and calling all to repent and believe the gospel.

Unjustly condemned for blasphemy and sedition, Jesus was crucified, suffering the depths of human pain and giving his life for the sins of the world.
God raised this Jesus from the dead, vindicating his sinless life, breaking the power of sin and evil, delivering us from death to life eternal.

THE EUCHARIST

OFFERING

Anthem

Christ the Lord Is Risen Again

Philip W.J. Stopford

Christ the Lord is risen again, Christ hath broken every chain.

Hark, angelic voices cry, singing evermore on high,

Alleluia, alleluia, alleluia...

He who gave for us his life, who for us endured the strife, is our Paschal Lamb today; we too sing for joy, and say Alleluia!

He who bore all pain and loss comfortless upon the cross, lives in glory now on high, pleads for us, and hears our cry.

He who slumbered in the grave is exalted now to save;
now through Christendom it rings that the Lamb is King of kings.

Alleluia, alleluia, alleluia...

Thou, our Paschal Lamb indeed, Christ, thy ransomed people feed;
take our sins and guilt away: let us sing by night and day,

Alleluia, alleluia, alleluia...

*DOXOLOGY

LASST UNS ERFREUEN

Praise God, from whom all blessings flow;

Praise God, all creatures here below: Alleluia! Alleluia!

Praise God, the source of all our gifts!

Praise Jesus Christ, whose power uplifts!

Praise the Spirit, Holy Spirit! Alleluia! Alleluia! Alleluia!

*PREPARATION OF THE LORD'S TABLE

*INVITATION

*GREAT PRAYER OF THANKSGIVING

The Lord be with you. And also with you.

Lift up your hearts. We lift them up to the Lord.

Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

It is right to give our thanks and praise.

It is truly right and our greatest joy...

and is risen to raise us to new life.

Philip Stopford has written a joyous anthem for Easter which abounds with energetic alleluias. A very singable melody and an air of celebration with brass accompaniment make this anthem a perfect way to celebrate Easter. The text was written by a Bohemian Brethren pastor, Michael Weisse, in the early 16th century and translated into English by Catherine Winkworth in the 19th century. Winkworth is well known for her English translations of German hymns; her translations are polished and yet remain close to the original.

ONE GREAT HOUR OF SHARING OFFERING: Since 1949, Presbyterians have joined with millions of other Christians through One Great Hour of Sharing to share God's love with people experiencing need. Recognizing that the hope we have in Christ is lived out in our hope for one another, we respond with gifts that help our brothers and sisters around the world to find the hope for a brighter future.

Therefore we praise you, singing with angels and archangels,
 and with all the faithful of every time and place,
 to the glory of your mighty name:

Ho - ly, ho - ly, ho - ly Lord.
 God of pow - er and might. Heav - en and earth are full of your glo - ry. Ho - san - na, ho - san - na, ho - san - na in the high - est! Bles - sed is he who comes, he who comes in the name of the Lord. Ho - san - na, ho - san - na, ho - san - na in the high - est!

(The congregation may be seated.)

You are holy, O God of majesty... to be a living and holy sacrifice, dedicated to your service.

So we proclaim the mystery of faith:

Christ has died, Christ is ris - en, Christ will come a - gain.

Gracious God, pour out your Holy Spirit... and we feast with him at the banquet of heaven.

Through Christ, with Christ, in Christ, in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
 all glory and honor are yours, almighty God,
 now and forever.

ALL:

[organ]
 A - men, A - men, A - men.

THE LORD'S PRAYER (Prayed in unison)

COMMUNION OF THE PEOPLE

Music during Communion

Anthem This Is the Feast of Victory

FESTIVAL CANTICLE

The congregation is invited to sing the refrain with the choir.

Refrain: This is the feast of victory for our God.
Alleluia! Alleluia! Alleluia!

Worthy is Christ, the Lamb who was slain, whose blood set us free to be people of God. Refrain

Power, riches, wisdom, and strength, and honor, blessing, and glory are his. Refrain

Sing with all the people of God, and join in the hymn of all creation. Refrain

Blessing, honor, glory, and might be to God and the Lamb forever. Amen.

For the Lamb who was slain has begun his reign. Alleluia!

About This Is the Feast of Victory

This exuberant unrhymed paraphrase is especially well suited for use at celebrations of the Lord's Supper in Easter Season. The stanzas are derived from several passages in Revelation (5:9-10, 12-14; 7:10b, 12), while the refrain possibly refers to 1 Corinthians 15:54b-56. TEXT: John W. Arthur, 1970; MUSIC: Richard Hillert, 1975, alt.

About Hymn 238

This Easter text, first in French and later in English, was written to fit the music, a chorus created for Handel's oratorio Joshua and moved to Judas Maccabeus in 1751. It grew widely popular following its use at the First Assembly of the World Council of Churches in 1948. TEXT: Edmond Louis Budry, 1884; trans. R. Birch Hoyle, 1923, alt.; MUSIC: George Frederick Handel, 1748.

COPYRIGHT INFORMATION: The music used in the service this morning is copyrighted under Christian Copyright Licensing International, Inc., No. 11221525.

OUR MISSION

Ordinary people testifying to the extraordinary light found in our Lord Jesus Christ.

“For it is the God who said, ‘Let light shine out of darkness,’ who has shone in our hearts to give the light of the knowledge of the glory of God in the face of Jesus Christ. But we have this treasure in clay jars, so that it may be made clear that this extraordinary power belongs to God and does not come from us.”

232 Jesus Christ Is Risen Today

1 Je - sus Christ is risen to - day,
 2 Hymns of praise then let us sing, Al - le - lu - ia!
 3 But the pains which he en - dured,
 4 Sing we to our God a - bove, our tri - um - phant ho - ly day, un - to Christ, our heaven - ly King, Al - le - lu - ia!

 our sal - va - tion have pro - cured.
 praise e - ter - nal as God's love.

who did once up - on the cross, who en - dured the cross and grave, Al - le - lu - ia!
 Now a - bove the sky he's King, Praise our God, ye heaven - ly host, suf - fer to re - deem our loss.

 sin - ners to re - deem and save. Al - le - lu - ia!
 where the an - gels ev - er sing.
 Fa - ther, Son, and Ho - ly Ghost.

Thine Is the Glory

1 Thine is the glo - ry, ris - en, con-quer-ing Son; end - less is 2 Lo! Je - sus meets us, ris - en from the tomb; lov - ing - ly 3 No more we doubt thee, glo - rious Prince of life! Life is naught the vic-tory thou o'er death hast won. An - gels in bright rai-ment he greets us, scat-ters fear and gloom. Let the church with glad-ness with-out thee; aid us in our strife. Make us more than conquerors rolled the stone a - way, kept the fold - ed grave-clothes hymns of tri-umph sing, for the Lord now liv - eth; through thy death-less love; bring us safe through Jor - dan

Refrain

where thy bod - y lay.
 death hath lost its sting. Thine is the glo - ry, ris - en, con-quer-ing to thy home a - bove.

Son; end - less is the vic - tory thou o'er death hast won.
