About the Prelude

The Prelude is a musical offering to help move the hearts and minds of the gathering community from the daily struggles of life to the worship of God. The melody and text for this tune can be found as #830 in our hymnal. Krebs starts this piece with a figuration prelude to introduce the tonality. Then the solo melody is accompanied by an active bass-line, followed by a final verse notated in figured bass to be realized in a chorale texture.

Worship on the Lord's Day

Worship begins as the people gather - greeting one another, praying in silence, or offering music to the glory of God. The act of assembling in Jesus' name bears witness to the Church's identity and mission as Christ's body in the world.

About Hymn 301

Although it was written for a church dedication, this text is not about a physical structure but a spiritual one. The building is at best only a vessel for the essential love and hope, life and faith, peace and justice, hospitality and nurture that form the worshipping community. TEXT and MUSIC: Marty Haugen, 1994.

GATHERING

(Silence during the Prelude is requested in preparation for worship.)

PRELUDE

Prelude, Solo, and Chorale on "Jesu, meine Freude"

Johann Ludwig Krebs

*CALL TO WORSHIP

Let us worship God!

(Those who are able may stand.)

Give thanks to the Lord, for God is good.

God's steadfast love endures forever.

Maintain justice, and do what is right.

God our Savior is coming soon.

*PRAYER OF THE DAY

The Lord be with you. And also with you.

Almighty God,

whose compassion embraces everyone,

gather the outcast and the lost,

heal the wounds of fear and distrust, and make us a community of reconciliation that we may embody your merciful love and rejoice in your astounding grace

in Jesus Christ. Amen.

(The Cross and Bible lead the procession, symbolic of the centrality in worship of Jesus Christ - the Living Word, and the Bible - the written Word.)

*PROCESSIONAL HYMN 301

TWO OAKS

Let Us Build a House

CALL TO CONFESSION

Let us confess our sins without fear to the One who yearns to embrace us, forgive us, protect us, and bless us.

We bring our brokenness to God as we confess now.

PRAYER OF CONFESSION

You call us, O God, but we seldom hear.
If we do hear, we are reluctant to respond.
If we do respond, we are afraid to follow your directions.
Our sins have deafened us to your Word,
and too often we find comfort in our lack of hearing.
Remove the obstacles that keep us from the life you intend for us.
Shake us free from that which is faulty,
so what remains is life-giving.
Help us to receive your call with our whole hearts,
so that we may do your work and give you glory,
through Jesus Christ. Amen.

(Silent confession)

Kyrie

Hal H. Hopson

(Sung responsively by the choir and congregation)

Lord, have mercy. Lord, have mercy.
Christ, have mercy. Christ, have mercy.
Lord, have mercy. Lord, have mercy.

ASSURANCE OF PARDON

Believe the Good News:
In Jesus Christ we are forgiven!

The Peace

Since God in Christ has forgiven us, let us also forgive one another.

The peace of Christ be with you. And also with you.

*(Please exchange the peace with the words,
"The peace of Christ be with you.")*

ACT OF PRAISE

GLORIA PATRI

(Singing together Hymn 581)

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son,
and to the Holy Ghost;
as it was in the beginning,
is now and ever shall be,
world without end. Amen, amen.

Prayer of Confession

Having praised the holiness of God, we must also face the errant state of the world and of our lives, confessing our unworthiness to enter into God's presence. Still, we approach God with confidence, trusting in the mercy of Jesus Christ. This turn from communal praise to corporate confession, established on the promise of God's grace, is one of the hallmarks of the Reformed tradition.

Assurance of Pardon

A declaration of forgiveness proclaims the good news of God's mercy and offers the assurance of pardon in Jesus' name. The liturgist pours water into the font, which reminds us of the grace and cleansing of our Baptism, and the baptismal call to new life in Christ.

Act of Praise

The Act of Praise brings together the choir and congregation to sing God's praise.

CONCERNS OF THE CHURCH

(Everyone is asked to sign the Friendship pad, which is located at the center aisle end of each pew.)

Psalm 133

How Good!

Michael Engelhardt

How good and pleasant it is when we dwell together in unity.

All people, all around the world, all sisters and brothers, we're born to be in one family.

Unique yet we're unified, one body yet many.

Diversity; Oh, let it be our identity!

How good and pleasant it is when we dwell together in unity.

It's time we finally agree we need one another.

In bonds of peace we are free indeed.

Nothing can separate us from the love of the Father.

True unity; Oh, let it be a reality!

O how good and how pleasant it is when we dwell together in unity.

Sisters and brothers, ev'ryone, let's dwell together in unity.

Every nation, tribe, and tongue, let's dwell together in unity.

How good and pleasant it is. Oh, how good and pleasant it is.

How good!

Genesis 45:1-9

(Old Testament, page 42 in your pew Bible)

SERMON

"God-Sized Dreams"

Donovan Drake

(A moment for meditation)

Scripture

The scriptures bear witness to the word of God, revealed most fully in Jesus Christ, the Word who "became flesh and lived among us." (John 1:14) Where the word is read and proclaimed, Jesus Christ the living Word is present by the power of the Holy Spirit. Therefore, reading, hearing, preaching, and affirming the word are central to Christian worship and essential to the Service for the Lord's Day.

The lyrics of How Good! are a blend of various Biblical references to living in unity with one another. The title and chorus are derived from Psalm 133, which serves as the central theme of the piece. A spirit of celebration from the choir's performance will serve as a beautiful example of "how good and pleasant it is" when people from various backgrounds come together to form one unified body. Michael Engelhardt (b. 1974) was born and raised in Woodstock, IL.

AFFIRMATION OF FAITH

We believe that Christ’s work of reconciliation is made manifest in the church as the community of believers, who have been reconciled with God
 and with one another;
 that unity is, therefore, both a gift and an obligation
 for the church of Jesus Christ;
 that through the working of God’s Spirit
 it is a binding force,
 yet simultaneously a reality,
 which must be earnestly pursued and sought:
 one which the people of God must continually be built up to attain;
 that this unity must become visible so that the world may believe that separation, enmity, and hatred between people and groups is sin, which Christ has already conquered, and accordingly that anything which threatens this unity may have no place in the church and must be resisted.

Written as a meditation on Lamentations 3:22-23, this text is one of the few hymns among the 1200 poems by this Methodist writer and pastor that has gained much currency. The tune that appears here was composed especially for these words, and the pairing has proved enduring.
 TEXT: Thomas O. Chisholm, 1923;
 MUSIC: William Marion Runyan, 1923.

PRAYERS OF THE PEOPLE

The Lord be with you. And also with you.
 Lift up your hearts. We lift them up to the Lord.

Doxology

A short hymn of praise to the triune God (God, Jesus Christ, Holy Spirit).

Prayer of Thanksgiving

God’s grace elicits our heartfelt gratitude. We respond to the good news of forgiveness with joyful acclamations of praise!

About Hymn 300

A parish priest at St. Brendan’s on the South side of Chicago in the 1960s was very involved in the local Civil Rights movement and needed something for his youth choir to sing at ecumenical, interracial events. Finding nothing, he wrote this song in a single day. TEXT and MUSIC: Peter Scholtes, 1966.

About the Postlude

The Postlude is considered the final Alleluia of worship. In the generations prior to J.S. Bach, German organists did not compose Preludes and Fugues separately, but used varied material in one piece comprised of multiple sections. This Praeludium by Tunder begins with Prelude-like figurations that lead into a fugue with two expositions; the figuration style then returns to conclude the piece.

Praise God, all creatures here below: Alleluia! Alleluia!
Praise God, the source of all our gifts!
Praise Jesus Christ, whose power uplifts!

PRAYER OF THANKSGIVING

The Lord be with you. And also with you.
Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.
It is right to give our thanks and praise.

Gracious Lord,
you have given us more mercy
than we could imagine,
and more blessings than we deserve.
Receive our gifts as tokens of our gratitude to you,
that your mercy may be multiplied,
and your blessings abound
to embrace all those in need. Amen.

Our Mission

Ordinary people testifying to the extraordinary light found in our Lord Jesus Christ.

“For it is the God who said, ‘Let light shine out of darkness,’ who has shone in our hearts to give the light of the knowledge of the glory of God in the face of Jesus Christ. But we have this treasure in clay jars, so that it may be made clear that this extraordinary power belongs to God and does not come from us.”
