WESTMINSTER
PRESBYTERIAN

...that they should set their hope in God.

GATHERING

(Silence during the Prelude is requested in preparation for worship.)

About the Prelude

The Prelude is a musical offering to help move the hearts and minds of the gathering community from the daily struggles of life to the worship of God.

PRELUDE

Offertoire sur les grands jeux

Francois Couperin

*CALL TO WORSHIP

Let us worship God!

(Those who are able may stand.)

Give ear, O my people, to my teaching.

We will tell the coming generation the glorious deeds of the Lord.

We will not hide them from the children.

We will tell them to our children's children.

We will tell of God's wonders,
so that they should set their hope in God.

*PRAYER OF THE DAY

The Lord be with you. And also with you.

Lord God,

receive our praise and thanksgiving for the blessings, help, and comfort that you bestowed upon your people in this place from its foundation.

Continue, we pray, your many mercies in your church, that we may be conscious at all times
of your unchanging love;
through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

(The Cross and Bible lead the procession, symbolic of the centrality in worship of Jesus Christ - the Living Word, and the Bible - the written Word.)

*PROCESSIONAL HYMN 624

TOULON

I Greet Thee, Who My Sure Redeemer Art

Worship on the Lord's Day

Worship begins as the people gather - greeting one another, praying in silence, or offering music to the glory of God. The act of assembling in Jesus' name bears witness to the Church's identity and mission as Christ's body in the world.

About Hymn 624

The original French text, sometimes attributed to John Calvin, seems to be a Protestant reworking of a Roman Catholic hymn, not a typical practice for him. Yet this text and tune (adapted from GENEVAN 124) clearly date from the early years of the Reformed tradition. TEXT: Psalms, Strasbourg, 1545; MUSIC: Genevan Psalter, 1551.

CALL TO CONFESSION

The proof of God's amazing love is this:
While we were yet sinners, Christ died for us.

Because we have faith in him,
we dare to approach God with confidence.

(Romans 5:8, Hebrews 4:16)

In faith and penitence, let us confess our sins before God and one another.

PRAYER OF CONFESSION

Merciful God,
we confess that we have not loved you with our whole heart.
We have failed to be an obedient church.
We have not done your will,
we have broken your law,
we have rebelled against your love.
We have not loved our neighbors, and we have refused to hear the cry of the needy.
Forgive us, we pray.
Free us for joyful obedience;
through Jesus Christ our Lord.

(Silent confession)

Kyrie

Hal H. Hopson

About the Kyrie

(Sung responsively by the choir and congregation)

Lord, have mercy. Lord, have mercy.
Christ, have mercy. Christ, have mercy.
Lord, have mercy. Lord, have mercy.

The Kyrie (Greek "kyrios" [Lord]) is a corporate musical prayer for grace.

ASSURANCE OF PARDON

Believe the Good News:
In Jesus Christ we are forgiven!

The Peace

Since God in Christ has forgiven us, let us also forgive one another.

The peace of Christ be with you. And also with you.

*(Please exchange the peace with the words,
"The peace of Christ be with you.")*

Assurance of Pardon

A declaration of forgiveness proclaims the good news of God's mercy and offers the assurance of pardon in Jesus' name. The liturgist pours water into the font, which reminds us of the grace and cleansing of our Baptism, and the baptismal call to new life in Christ.

Act of Praise

The Act of Praise brings together the choir and congregation to sing God's praise in response to the Assurance of Pardon as the last phrase.

Prayer for Illumination

This prayer calls on the Holy Spirit to empower the reading, understanding, proclaiming, and living of God's word. This sense of utter reliance on the illumination of the Spirit is an important and distinctive mark of the Reformed tradition.

Scripture

The scriptures bear witness to the word of God, revealed most fully in Jesus Christ, the Word who "became flesh and lived among us." (John 1:14) Where the word is read and proclaimed, Jesus Christ the living Word is present by the power of the Holy Spirit. Therefore, reading, hearing, preaching, and affirming the word are central to Christian worship and essential to the Service for the Lord's Day.

Psalm 78 My People, Hear My Teaching

Philip W.J. Stopford

This new musical setting of Psalm 78 was commissioned from the composer to celebrate Westminster's 150th Anniversary in worship this Sunday, November 12, 2023.

My people, hear my teaching;
listen to the words of my mouth.
I will open my mouth with a parable;
I will utter hidden things, things from of old;
things we have heard and known,
things our ancestors have told us.
We will not hide them from their descendants;
we will tell the next generation the praise-worthy deeds of the Lord, his power, and the wonders he has done.
He decreed statutes for Jacob and established the law in Israel, which he commanded our ancestors to teach their children, so the next generation would know them, even the children yet to be born,
and they in turn would tell their children,
Then they would put their trust in God and would not forget his deeds but would keep his commandments.
Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Ghost,
As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be,
World without end, Amen, Amen.

Hebrews 11:39—12:2

SERMON “...that they should set their hope in God.”

Donovan Drake

(A moment for meditation)

HYMN 485 We Know That Christ Is Raised ENGELBERG

SACRAMENT OF BAPTISM

Presentation

Hear the words of our Lord Jesus Christ...

Obedying the word of our Lord Jesus, and confident of his promises,
we baptize those whom God has called.

In baptism God claims us and seals us to show that we belong to God.
God frees us from sin and death, uniting us with Jesus Christ in his death and resurrection.

By water and the Holy Spirit,
we are made members of the Church,
the body of Christ, and joined to Christ's ministry of love, peace, and justice.

Let us remember with joy our own baptism, as we celebrate this sacrament.

Questions to the Parents, Congregation and Children of the Church

Profession of Faith

Through baptism we enter the covenant...

With the whole Church, let us confess our faith.

Do you believe in God, the Father almighty?

I believe in God, the Father almighty, creator of heaven and earth.

Do you believe in Jesus Christ?

I believe in Jesus Christ, God's only Son, our Lord, who was conceived by the Holy Spirit, born of the Virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, died, and was buried;
he descended to the dead.

The Sermon

The sermon, based on the scripture read in worship, proclaims the good news of the risen Lord and presents the gift and calling of the gospel. Through the sermon, we encounter Jesus Christ in God's word, are equipped to follow him more faithfully, and are inspired to proclaim the gospel to others through our words and deeds.

About Hymn 485

Beginning with an allusion to Romans 6:9, this exuberant hymn unfolds the implications of our incorporation into Christ's new life, making us "a new creation" (2 Corinthians 5:17). The text was written to fit this expansive tune by a distinguished British composer. TEXT: John Brownlow Geyer, 1967; MUSIC: Charles Villiers Stanford, 1904.

The Baptismal Rite

The Apostles' Creed: The oldest surviving baptismal liturgy, dating from around the year 200 C.E., describes the candidate for baptism standing in water and affirming the faith by responding to three questions. Each question corresponds to one person of the Trinity. The Paschal Candle is symbolic of Christ's death and resurrection. The Lamb of God, who takes away the sin of the world, is our Paschal sacrifice. The Paschal Candle also symbolizes the light of the risen Christ, shining in the world. The use of this symbol dates from the early days of the Church. New Christians were given a lighted candle, symbolic of their having died and been raised to new life in Christ through baptism.

On the third day he rose again;
he ascended into heaven;
he is seated at the right hand of the Father;
and he will come to judge the living and the dead.

Do you believe in the Holy Spirit?

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the holy catholic Church, the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins,
the resurrection of the body, and the life everlasting.
Amen.

Thanksgiving over the Water

The Lord be with you. And also with you.

Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

It is right to give our thanks and praise.

Eternal and gracious God...lives and reigns forever. Amen.

The Baptism

Welcome

With joy and thanksgiving, we welcome you into the body of Christ.

Live as a child of the light and let your light shine before others. Amen.

Baptismal Anthem

Loving Shepherd of Thy Sheep

John Arnn

Loving Shepherd of thy sheep,
Keep thy lambs in safety keep;
Nothing can thy pow'r withstand,
None can pluck them from thy hand.
May they praise thee ev'ry day,
Gladly all thy will obey;
Like thy blessed ones above,
Happy in thy precious love.
Loving Shepherd ever near Teach thy lambs thy voice to hear;
Suffer not their steps to stray from the straight and narrow way;
Where thou leadest may they go,
Walking in thy steps below.
Then, before thy Father's throne,
Savior, claim them for thine own.

THANKSGIVING

OFFERING

Anthem O God, Beyond All Praising Richard Proulx

O God, beyond all praising, we worship you today and sing the love amazing that songs cannot repay; for we can only wonder at ev'ry gift you send,
at blessings without number and mercies without end:
we lift our hearts before you and wait upon your word,
we honor and adore you, our great and mighty Lord.

The flow'r of earthly splendor in time must surely die, its fragile bloom surrender to you, the Lord most high;
but hidden from all nature the eternal seed is sown - though small in mortal stature, to heaven's garden grown:
for Christ the man from heaven from death has set us free,
and we through him are given the final victory.

Then hear, O gracious Savior, accept the love we bring, that we who know your favor may serve you as our King;
and whether our tomorrows be filled with good or ill, we will triumph through our sorrows and rise to praise you still:
to marvel at your beauty and glory in your ways,
and make a joyful duty our sacrifice of praise.

*DOXOLOGY

LASST UNS ERFREUEN

Praise God, from whom all blessings flow; Praise God, all creatures here below: Alleluia! Alleluia!
Praise God, the source of all our gifts!
Praise Jesus Christ, whose power uplifts!
Praise the Spirit, Holy Spirit! Alleluia! Alleluia! Alleluia!

Doxology

A short hymn of praise to the triune
God (God, Jesus Christ, Holy Spirit).

*PRAYER OF THANKSGIVING

The Lord be with you. And also with you.

Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.
It is right to give our thanks and praise.

Eternal and loving God,
we give thanks to you for your goodness through all the years of worship and witness in this place.
For your grace in calling us to be your people, for your love revealed to us in Christ your Son,
for your gift of the Spirit and the joy of salvation:
We give you thanks, O God.

For those who established this congregation,
for their faith and vision, for their gifts and abilities:
We give you thanks, O God.

For all who have been members of this congregation, for those who have given freely of their time and money,
for those whose wisdom guided our congregation:
We give you thanks, O God.

Give us the assurance that we belong to that great company, but save us from living in the past and from resting on the work of others.
Help us to find a new beginning and a new vision, that we may know our task in this place and in the world today;
through Jesus Christ our Savior. Amen.

POSTLUDE Carillon de Westminster Louis Vierne

(Those who are able may stand.)*

About Hymn 687

Many people sing this hymn unaware that it paraphrases Psalm 90, partly because this text speaks so immediately to the human condition. Since the middle of the 19th century, it has usually been joined to this tune named for the London parish where the composer was organist. TEXT: Isaac Watts, 1719; MUSIC: Attr. William Croft, 1708.

About the Postlude

The Postlude is considered the final Alleluia of worship.

Our Mission

Ordinary people testifying to the extraordinary light found in our Lord Jesus Christ.

“For it is the God who said, ‘Let light shine out of darkness,’ who has shone in our hearts to give the light of the knowledge of the glory of God in the face of Jesus Christ. But we have this treasure in clay jars, so that it may be made clear that this extraordinary power belongs to God and does not come from us.”

GENEROSITY

At Westminster during the sacrament of baptism we witness the very beginning of new life in Christ Jesus, and we promise to share the good news of the Gospel.

In fact, many of our tiniest members sit at the steps and when asked if they promise to teach this baby about God, they respond with a resounding "yes!". New Life. A Promise. And a journey of faith begins!

Because of your generosity, Westminster is there to nurture our faith every step of the way. Our Children's Ministry offers amazing programs - Sunday School, special events and trips, and presents Bibles to children every year so that they can know the stories of Jesus. Our Music Ministry provides the opportunity for our Westminster children and youth to raise their voices in song and praise at worship. In middle and high school, our Youth Ministry continues to walk alongside them through confirmation class, Bible studies, youth group and mission trips. Just this past summer, 22 of our youth attended the Montreat Youth Conference where thousands gathered from all over the country to experience God's transforming power!

Because of your generosity, Westminster is also blessed to have wonderful adult education opportunities that enrich and sustain the faith of members of every age. Every step of the way, the Holy Spirit has been acting in and through Westminster to remind us of who we are and whose we are. Our faith journeys never end.

Last Sunday, we heard our youth express their gratitude to Westminster for supporting and guiding them over the years and the important role the church has played in their lives. To fund our ministries and continue to serve our children, our families, our community and the world, we need every gift of every size. This Sunday, November 12 is Generosity Sunday. Please consider making a pledge either for the first time or increasing your pledge by 8% over last year. This is our opportunity to invest and partner with God, in growing the Kingdom of God, today.

In gratitude,
The Generosity Committee
