

Elizabeth Ball

Elizabeth Ball and her late husband, Scott started attending WPC in 2018 and joined in 2019. They were married for 15.5 years before Scott's death in March 2023. Elizabeth grew up in East Tennessee and moved to Texas at age 19 to be part of a General Assembly program helping small churches with their youth ministry. She lived in Texas for 30 years, which is where she and Scott met and married. She has three adult daughters, one in Los Angeles, one in Dallas and one in Gallatin, Tn. She has three granddaughters. She is a lifelong Presbyterian and has served as an elder, a deacon, a youth director and a Sunday School teacher. She is a choir member at WPC and plays bells with the inter-generational group. She is a Licensed Clinical Social Worker and a children and family therapist.