

Frank Wade

Frank has been a lifelong member of Westminster, and was baptized in the chapel in November 1950. He has served as an Elder, and was a member of the Pastor Nominating Committee that called Donovan to Westminster. He currently teaches 4-year-old Sunday School, is a member of the Personnel Committee, the Pastoral Care Task Force, the Families with Young Children Committee, and is Westminster's representative on the Presbytery's Commission on Ministry. He has served as a past board member for the Westminster School for Young Children, The Martha O'Bryan Center, and Nations Ministry Center.
