

Doug Berry

Ray and Doug Berry have been members of Westminster since 1982. They raised their three children, Hamilton, Claire, and Zan in the church. Doug grew up in Franklin. His parents were longtime members of the First Presbyterian Church there and later Historic Franklin Presbyterian, where daughter Claire is now the pastor. Doug has practiced law in Nashville since 1979 and is presently with Miller Martin law firm. Over the years he and Ray have both served on the session, taught Sunday school, and served on several committees. Doug recently completed two terms on the Administrative Committee of the Middle Tennessee Presbytery.
