

Elizabeth Lamar

Elizabeth Lamar joined Westminster in 1992. Westminster has been an important part of her life and that of her husband, Howard Lamar and adult sons, Hall, Warner and Trent Lamar. A native Nashvillian, Elizabeth is pleased to make her home in Nashville surrounded by extended family.

Elizabeth has enjoyed serving as an elder, as chair of the Benevolences Committee, as a Sunday school teacher, a new member class host, a youth group leader, a Room in the Inn volunteer and has enjoyed learning in various Sunday School classes and Bible studies over the years. She is currently loving participating in oil painting in WPC's Joy in Learning program.

