

Susan Carey

Susan Carey is a lifetime Presbyterian and originally from East Tennessee. She moved to Nashville to attend law school at Vanderbilt in the late '80s and began worshiping at Westminster. Susan is married to Scott Carey, and they have two sons. Susan has been involved in various aspects of Westminster including serving as the chair of the Witness Committee and Moderator of Presbyterian Women. She was a member of Westminster's first Disciple class in 2002 and continues to help lead a Bible study of women from that original group. She has served two prior terms on the Session and also as the Clerk of Session. She is a member of the choir and serves on the board of Vox Grata.
