

Houston Estes

Hays and Houston Estes have been members of Westminster Presbyterian Church for about 8 years. They have three children - Alden, 6, Hatten, 5, and Beverly, 8 months.

Hays and Houston are Nashville natives. Both of them spent time away from Nashville for college and post college, but found themselves back home in their mid and late 20s. Houston has spent the majority of his career in the commercial insurance industry. He is currently a Managing Executive General Adjuster for Crawford and Co. Houston is active in the young men's, Saturday morning Bible study, WPC Room in the Inn and volunteers regularly for the church security team.

Between three young children and a job that keeps him on the road, Houston stays busy, however, in his free time he enjoys pickleball and travelling with friends and family.
