

Nicole Oeser

Nicole and Brett Oeser joined Westminster in 2006 after being married by KC Ptomey a few years earlier in the Mother Church of Country Music.

Nicole grew up in south Mississippi as a Baptist but enjoyed every bible school in town each summer. After college, Nicole moved to Nashville to work as an auditor at KPMG where she met her best friend Michelle Kennedy (also a recovering Southern Baptist) and a few years later she met her husband, Brett, through mutual friends. Brett and Nicole have two children, Anne Catherine (21) and Henry (16), and are so grateful for the community that Westminster has provided to their family in good times and sad ones.

After an 18-year career at Vanderbilt, Nicole began working as a technology consultant to other universities. Nicole has enjoyed teaching Sunday School and volunteering with the youth group and is honored to serve on the Flower Guild and, beginning soon, the Worship Flower Delivery Team.
