DRAW IT

In Luke 12, Jesus warns his followers not to be greedy for material things or money. He contrasts this with true treasure, which is a life of closeness with God.

Draw a picture of what you think might be even more important than having money or buying fancy things.

FOLLOW the PATH

In describing God as a strong protector, what kind of animal does Hosea 11 picture God as? Follow the path of letters, and each time you come to a capital letter, write it at the bottom of the page. When you reach the end of the path, see the animal spelled out below.
