

You Servants of God, Your Master Proclaim

This hymn resembles many 18th-century drawings that show parallels between worship on earth and worship in heaven, especially as described in Revelation 7:9–11. This 18th-century tune has had many names; the one used here honors the dynasty of British monarchs, 1714–1901.

GATHERING

(Silence during the Prelude is requested in preparation for worship.)

About the Prelude

The Prelude is a musical offering to help move the hearts and minds of the gathering community from the daily struggles of life to the worship of God.

Worship on the Lord's Day

Worship begins as the people gather greeting one another, praying in silence, or offering music to the glory of God. The act of assembling in Jesus' name bears witness to the Church's identity and mission as Christ's body in the world.

About Hymn 299

This hymn resembles many 18th-century drawings that show parallels between worship on earth and worship in heaven, especially as described in Revelation 7:9–11. This 18th-century tune has had many names; the one used here honors the dynasty of British monarchs, 1714–1901.

PRELUDE

Felix Mendelssohn

Sonate VI: Sostenuto e legato, Andante

*CALL TO WORSHIP

Bob Hines

Let us worship God!

(Those who are able may stand.)

O people of God, praise the Lord!

Blessed is God's name forever.

From break of day to setting sun,
let us praise the name of the Lord.

*PRAYER OF THE DAY

Bob Hines

The Lord be with you. And also with you.

God of grace, you have given us minds to know you, hearts to love you, and voices to sing your praise. Fill us with your Spirit, that we may celebrate your glory and worship you in spirit and in truth Through Jesus Christ, our Lord. Amen.

(The Cross and Bible lead the procession, symbolic of the centrality in worship of Jesus Christ - the Living Word, and the Bible - the written Word.)

*PROCESSIONAL HYMN 299

CALL TO CONFESSION

Bob Hines

In a dark world we live; from a dark world we come to worship, God of light.

We have come to confess that we believe Jesus Christ to be our Lord and Savior. Let your light by the Spirit shine out of us wherever we go.

Let us confess our sins against God and neighbor.

PRAYER OF CONFESSION

Bob Hines

Merciful God,
you made us in your image,
with a mind to know you,
a heart to love you,
and a will to serve you.
But our knowledge is imperfect,
our love inconstant,
our obedience incomplete.
Day by day, we fail to grow in to your likeness.
In your tender love, forgive us through Jesus Christ, our Lord. Amen.

(Silent confession)

Kyrie

James MacMillan

ASSURANCE OF PARDON

Guy D. Griffith

Believe the Good News: In Jesus Christ we are forgiven!

*The Peace

Since God in Christ has forgiven us, let us also forgive one another.

The peace of Christ be with you. And also with you.

(Please exchange the peace with the words, "The peace of Christ be with you.")

Call to and Prayer of Confession

A call to confession expresses God's initiative in calling for repentance and promising forgiveness in Christ. As members of Christ's body, we confess the reality of sin, captivity, and brokenness in personal and common life and ask for God's saving grace.

About the Kyrie

The Kyrie (Greek "kyrios" [Lord]) is a corporate musical prayer for grace.

Assurance of Pardon

A declaration of forgiveness proclaims the good news of God's mercy and offers the assurance of pardon in Jesus' name. The liturgist pours water into the font, which reminds us of the grace and cleansing of our Baptism, and the baptismal call to new life in Christ.

*ACT OF PRAISE

GLORIA PATRI

(Singing together Hymn 581)

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Ghost; as it was in the beginning, is now and ever shall be, world without end. Amen, amen.

SCRIPTURE

Hear the Word of God! Our ears are open.

Luke 16:1-13

Ashley Higgins

(New Testament, pages 79 in your pew Bible)

The Word of the Lord. Thanks be to God!

Psalm 113 AUSTRIA

Bless the Lord, O Saints and Servants

Bless the Lord, O saints and servants, praise the might of God's great name: ageless, matchless, filled with wonder, yesterday, today, the same. When the dawn receives the sunrise till the night returns its rays, shall the glory of God's goodness be the theme of all our praise. Who in heaven can be God's equal, who on earth with God compare? Who can raise the poor from ashes, lift the needy from despair? God alone invites the helpless with the strong to share reward: fields once barren vield a harvest, tongues once silent praise their Lord.

Scripture

The scriptures bear witness to the word of God, revealed most fully in Jesus Christ, the Word who "became flesh and lived among us." (John 1:14) Where the word is read and proclaimed, Jesus Christ the living Word is present by the power of the Holy Spirit. Therefore, reading, hearing, preaching, and affirming the word are central to Christian worship and essential to the Service for the Lord's Day.

INSTALLATION

A LITANY OF GIFTS

J. Christopher Williams

As in one body we have many parts, and each part has its own function, so we, who are many, are one body in Christ, and individually we are members one of another.

We have different gifts according to the grace God has given us.

Let us not lack for enthusiasm, but be ardent in spirit, serving the Lord, rejoicing in hope, trusting in God, constant in prayer, supporting one another, and welcoming all.

STATEMENT ON THE MINISTRY OF THE CHURCH

J. Christopher Williams

We are called out by God to be the Church of Jesus Christ, a sign in the world today of the new life that God intends for all... Today we reclaim our historic calling and reclaim the great ends of the church:

The proclamation of the gospel for the salvation of humankind; the shelter, nurture, and spiritual fellowship of the children of God; the maintenance of divine worship; the preservation of the truth; the promotion of social righteousness; and the exhibition of the Kingdom of Heaven to the world.

PRESENTATION OF THE PASTOR-ELECT

J. Christopher Williams

We remember with joy our common calling to serve Christ, and we celebrate God's call to our sister, Stephanie, to serve among us as pastor.

PRAYER OF INSTALLATION

Bridgett Green

The Lord be with you. And also with you. Let us give thanks to the Lord our God. It is right to give our thanks and praise.

Make us the community you have called us to be, a chosen race, a royal priesthood, a holy nation, your very own people, gifted to proclaim your marvelous love.

Gracious God, we praise you that you have chosen servants in every age to speak your Word and lead your loyal people.
We give you thanks for your servant Stephanie,
and for the ministry to which you have called her.
Give Stephanie a full measure of the gifts of your Holy Spirit both in the walk of faith and for the work of ministry.
Anoint Stephanie with power to proclaim the gospel
in Word and Sacrament,
in witness and service,
in truth and in love,
for the building up of the people of God
and for the glory of the Lord Jesus Christ.

Generous God, pour out your Holy Spirit upon this congregation... ... and strengthen us with the power of your Holy Spirit now and forever. Amen.

Anthem

How Firm a Foundation

How firm a foundation, ye saints of the Lord, is laid for your faith in God's excellent Word! What more can be said than to you God hath said, to you who for refuge to Jesus have fled?

"Fear not, I am with thee, O be not dismayed, for I am thy God, and will still give thee aid; I'll strengthen thee, help thee, and cause thee to stand, upheld by my righteous, omnipotent hand.

When through the deep waters I call thee to go, the rivers of sorrow shall not overflow; for I will be near thee, thy troubles to bless, and sanctify to thee thy deepest distress.

When through fiery trials thy pathway shall lie, my grace, all sufficient, shall be thy supply; the flame shall not hurt thee; I only design thy dross to consume, and thy gold to refine.

The soul that on Jesus hath leaned for repose,
I will not, I will not desert to its foes;
that soul, though all hell should endeavor to shake,
I'll never, no, never, no, never forsake."

*DOXOLOGY

LASST UNS ERFREUEN

Praise God, from whom all blessings flow; Praise God, all creatures here below: Alleluia! Alleluia! Praise God, the source of all our gifts! Praise Jesus Christ, whose power uplifts! Praise the Spirit, Holy Spirit! Alleluia! Alleluia! Offerings received at ordination and installation services go to The Presbytery Assistance Fund to support Presbyterian pastors in times of financial need. The Lord be with you. And also with you. Let us give thanks to the Lord our God. It is right to give our thanks and praise.

Creator of light, we rejoice in the sunrise of each day, whether veiled with clouds or brilliant with the colors of morning.

We celebrate your glory revealed in the face of Jesus Christ.

We live in the light your Spirit spreads in our minds and our hearts, thankful for new understanding of your purposes for us, for fresh courage to face adversity, for new moral life as our sins are put to death.

We praise you, Light above us, Light beside us, Light within us. Amen.

366 Love Divine, All Loves Excelling

This text and this tune occur in almost all English-language hymnals (though not always together). The transforming power of love motivates the unending praise of the life to come, and this fine Welsh tune (whose name means "delightful") gives us a foretaste of endless song.

Our Mission

Ordinary people testifying to the extraordinary light found in our Lord Jesus Christ.

"For it is the God who said, 'Let light shine out of darkness,' who has shone in our hearts to give the light of the knowledge of the glory of God in the face of Jesus Christ. But we have this treasure in clay jars, so that it may be made clear that this extraordinary power belongs to God and does not come from us."

(2 Corinthians 4:6-7)

When do you pray?

If God's desire is for everyone "to be saved and come to the knowledge of the truth," what is the evidence that is our desire, too?

How do you think prayer works? Put another way, what is your theology of prayer?

Westminster welcomes back Kem Hinton, FAIA to teach about Egypt after traveling there last year. An architect, urban designer, visual artist, historian, public speaker, and author, Kem was born in Nashville and raised in nearby Murfreesboro. He received the Bachelor of Architecture degree from the University of Tennessee (recipient of Torchbearer Award) and Master of Architecture degree from the University of Pennsylvania and the Ecole des Beaux-Arts in Paris. During his 35-year career with Tuck-

Hinton Architects, Kem was responsible for the design of educational facilities, private homes, theaters, museums, churches, parks, and memorials. Award-winning structures designed by their firm include the Country Music Hall of Fame, Frist Art Museum, Nashville Public Square, Girl Scout Center, Woodmont Hills Church of Christ, Tennessee Aguarium IMAX Center. Kem's most known accomplishments as lead designer are the Tennessee Bicentennial Mall, Civil Rights Room and Votes for Women Room (both in the Nashville Public Library), Tennessee World War II Memorial, and Tennessee State Library & Archives. He brings his keen architectural eye to the temples of Egypt and puts them in historical conversation with the Biblical story from both the Old and New Testaments.

The Frozen River by Ariel Lawhon

Presenter: Susan Hassell

The Frozen River by Ariel Lawhon recounts stories of the people and events that took place in 1789 in and around the new community of Hallowell, Maine. The The Frozen River characters are fictional, but their stories are inspired by historic diary entries preserved in Maine. The diary entries are a detailed record of daily births, medical care and deaths. The diaries document the work of Martha Ballard, an 18th century midwife and healer in the town and countryside around Hallowell.
