

Twenty-First Sunday after Pentecost
All Saints'
November 2, 2025

About the Prelude

The Prelude is a musical offering to help move the hearts and minds of the gathering community from the daily struggles of life to the worship of God.

All Saints' Day

All Saints' Day was established as an opportunity to honor all the saints, remembered and forgotten. It has been celebrated on or around November 1 since the ninth century. In the Reformed tradition, the emphasis is on the ongoing sanctification of the whole people of God. This is an appropriate time to give thanks for members of our own community of faith who have died in the past year, and to pray that we may be counted among the company of the faithful in God's eternal realm.

GATHERING

(Silence during the Prelude is requested in preparation for worship.)

Soundings

*CALL TO WORSHIP

Let us worship God!

(Those who are able may stand.)

Praise the Lord, all you faithful people!
With all the saints, we sing God's praise.
By the grace of Christ, we are God's own.
With all the blessed ones, we rejoice.

*PRAYER OF THE DAY

The Lord be with you. And also with you.

Father of glory, Lord Jesus Christ, Sanctifying Spirit, grant us a spirit of wisdom and revelation
so we may come to know you and in the inheritance we have in you:
redemption as God's own people,
to God's praise and glory.

(The Cross and Bible lead the procession, symbolic of the centrality in worship of Jesus Christ - the Living Word, and the Bible - the written Word.)

*PROCESSIONAL HYMN 326

SINE NOMINE

For All the Saints

For All the Saints

1 For all the saints who from their la - bors rest, who 2 Thou wast their rock, their for - tress, and their might;
 3 O blest com - mu - nion, fel - low - ship di - vine!
 4 And when the strife is fierce, the war - fare long,
 5 From earth's wide bounds, from o - cean's far - thest coast, through thee by faith be - fore the world con - fessed, thy thou, Lord, their cap - tain in the well - fought fight;

 We fee - bly strug - gle; they in glo - ry shine; yet steals on the ear the dis - tant tri - umph song, and gates of pearl streams in the count - less host, name, O Je - sus, be for - ev - er blest.

 thou, in the dark - ness drear, their one true light.
 all are one in thee, for all are thine.
 hearts are brave a - gain, and arms are strong.
 sing - ing to Fa - ther, Son, and Ho - ly Ghost,

Al - le - lu - ia! Al - le - lu - ia!

The broad and sweeping tune with which this hymn is so closely identified was created to be sung during a reverent but dramatic procession at the beginning of an All Saints' Day service, an enacted representation of the enduring "fellowship divine" celebrated by this text.

Harmony, stanza 3

3 O blest com - mu - nion, fel - low - ship di - vine!

We fee - bly strug - gle; they in glo - ry shine; yet

all are one in thee, for all are thine.

Al - le - lu - ia!

to stanza 4

Al - le - lu - ia! Al - le - lu - ia!

CALL TO CONFESSION

The proof of God's amazing love is this:

While we were sinners, Christ died for us.

Because we have faith in him,

we dare to approach God with confidence.

(Romans 5:8; Hebrews 4:16)

In faith and penitence,

let us confess our sin before God and one another.

PRAYER OF CONFESSION

Sovereign God, we confess that we have not turned away from sin.

We do not try to love our enemies or bless those who curse us.

We do not turn the other cheek or give to those in need.

Forgive us, God of grace.

Open our hearts to your way,

so that we might one day share an inheritance among the saints;

through Jesus Christ our Lord.

(Silent confession)

The Kyrie (Greek "kyrios" [Lord]) is a corporate musical prayer for grace.

Assurance of Pardon

A declaration of forgiveness proclaims the good news of God's mercy and offers the assurance of pardon in Jesus' name. The liturgist pours water into the font, which reminds us of the grace and cleansing of our Baptism, and the baptismal call to new life in Christ.

Prayer for Illumination

A Prayer for Illumination calls on the Holy Spirit to empower the reading, understanding, proclaiming, and living of God's word. This sense of utter reliance on the illumination of the Spirit is an important and distinctive mark of the Reformed tradition.

ASSURANCE OF PARDON

Believe the Good News: In Jesus Christ we are forgiven!

The Peace

Since God in Christ has forgiven us, let us also forgive one another.
The peace of Christ be with you. And also with you.

*(Please exchange the peace with the words,
"The peace of Christ be with you.")*

ACT OF PRAISE (Hymn 513)

FESTIVAL CANTICLE

This Is the Feast of Victory

(The congregation is invited to sing with the choir.)

Refrain: This is the feast of victory for our God.
Alleluia, alleluia, alleluia!

Sing with all the people of God,
and join in the hymn of all creation. Refrain.

CONCERNS OF THE CHURCH

which is located on the center aisle end of each pew.)*

Although this paraphrase is based on only a small part of Psalm 119, it incorporates many of the synonyms that weave through this extended acrostic psalm celebrating God's Law: commandments, judgments, words, teachings, wisdom, statutes, laws, precepts, understandings, ways.

AFFIRMATION OF FAITH

We are convinced that the life God wills for each of us is stronger than the death that destroys us.
The glory of that life exceeds our imagination,
but we know we shall be with Christ.
So we treat death as a broken power.
Its ultimate defeat is certain.
No life ends so tragically that its meaning and value are destroyed.
Nothing, not even death, can separate us from the love of God in Jesus Christ our Lord.

THANKSGIVING

OFFERING

Anthem

(8:30) Blest Are They

David Haas

Blest are they, the poor in spirit;
theirs is the kingdom of God.
Blest are they, full of sorrow;
they shall be consoled. Refrain

Refrain

Rejoice and be glad!
Blessed are you; holy are you!
Rejoice and be glad!
Yours is the kingdom of God!

Blest are they, the lowly ones;
they shall inherit the earth.
Blest are they who hunger and thirst;
they shall have their fill. Refrain

Offering

The collection of tithes and offerings takes place as a response to the Word. These actions are signs of our gratitude for the grace of God proclaimed in the gospel.

To give, please scan the QR code below:

Blest are they who show mercy;
mercy shall be theirs.

Blest are they, the pure of heart;
they shall see God. Refrain

Blest are they who seek peace;
they are the children of God.
Blest are they who suffer in faith;
the glory of God is theirs. Refrain

Blest are you who suffer hate,
all because of me.
Rejoice, be glad; yours is the kingdom;
shine for all to see. Refrain

LASST UNS ERFREUEN

Praise God, from whom all blessings flow; Praise God, all creatures here below: Alleluia! Alleluia!
Praise God, the source of all our gifts!
Praise Jesus Christ, whose power uplifts!
Praise the Spirit, Holy Spirit! Alleluia! Alleluia! Alleluia!

GREAT PRAYER OF THANKSGIVING

The Lord be with you. And also with you.
Lift up your hearts. We lift them to the Lord.

It is truly right and our greatest joy...
...where the multitude of your saints rejoice with Christ!

Therefore we praise you,
 joining our voices with angels and archangels,
 with prophets, apostles, and martyrs,
 and with all the faithful of everytime and place,
 who forever sing to the glory of your name:

(The congregation may be seated.)

You are holy, O God of majesty...
 ...that our lives may proclaim the One crucified and living.

Great is the mystery of faith.

Gracious God,...
 ... we will feast with you at your table in glory.

Through Christ, with Christ, in Christ,
 in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
 all honor and glory are yours,
 Almighty God, now and forever.

Our Father, who art in heaven,
hallowed be thy name,
thy kingdom come,
thy will be done,
on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread;
and forgive us our debts,
as we forgive our debtors;
and lead us not into temptation,
but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom, and the power,
and the glory, forever. Amen.

(The congregation is invited to sing the Response with the choir.)

Response

Eat this bread, drink this cup,
come to me and never be hungry.
Eat this bread, drink this cup,
trust in me and you will not thirst.

I am the bread of life,
the true bread sent from the Creator. Response.
Your ancestors ate manna in the desert,
but this is the bread come down from heaven. Response.
Anyone who eats this bread will live forever. Response.

If you believe and eat this bread,
you will have eternal life. Response.

About the Postlude

The Postlude is considered the final Alleluia of worship.

Descant

4 Re-joyce in glo - rious hope! For Christ, the Judge, shall come

1 Re - joyce, the Lord is King! Your Lord and King a - dore!
 2 Our Sav - ior, Je - sus, reigns, the God of truth and love;
 3 His king - dom can - not fail; he rules o'er earth and heaven;
 4 Re - joyce in glo - rious hope! For Christ, the Judge, shall come and gath - er all the saints to their e - ter - nal home.

Re - joyce, give thanks, and sing, and tri - umph ev - er - more.
 when he had purged our stains, he took his seat a - bove.
 the keys of death and hell are to our Je - sus given.
 and gath - er all the saints to their e - ter - nal home.

Lift up your heart; lift up your voice! Re-joyce, a - gain I say, re-joyce!

Lift up your heart; lift up your voice! Re-joyce, a - gain I say, re-joyce!

Each stanza of this enthronement text prepares for the final line of the refrain, based on Philippians 4:4.
 "Lord" is here a title of Christ rather than a reference to the undivided Trinity. The late 18th-century tune (first used with Psalm 148) captures the mood well.

Our Mission

Ordinary people testifying to the extraordinary light found in our Lord Jesus Christ.

"For it is the God who said, 'Let light shine out of darkness,' who has shone in our hearts to give the light of the knowledge of the glory of God in the face of Jesus Christ. But we have this treasure in clay jars, so that it may be made clear that this extraordinary power belongs to God and does not come from us."

Please contact Sylvia Leins, srleins@yahoo.com to receive one or add someone you know to the list for the next Communion Sunday.

ALL SAINTS' SUNDAY

All Saints' Day occurs on November 1st each year and is part of our worship at Westminster on the following Sunday. As we gather at Christ's table today, we will be remembering all those whom we have loved who are now among the Communion of Saints. The list below is comprised of Westminster members who have joined the Great Cloud of Witnesses and others for whom a Service of Witness to the Resurrection was held at Westminster since last year's All Saints' remembrance. During the Great Prayer of Thanksgiving, the names of these people will be uplifted, and there will be time for us all to lift up aloud (or in our hearts) the names of those who are among the Communion of Saints who are in our hearts as well this day.

NOVEMBER 2, ALL SAINTS

All Saints' Service of Remembrance

3:00 PM • Parlor Courtyard

A service of remembrance will be held outdoors in the Parlor Courtyard, providing the opportunity to remember all our loved ones in the great cloud of witnesses. In our worship, we will share communion, light candles and ring a bell to help us remember and give thanks.

- Names to be lifted up will be received ahead of the service, 2:45 – 3:00 PM, or by sending names to Rev. Stephanie Boaz, sboaz@nashvillewpc.org.
- You are invited to bring a photo of your loved one(s) to this service to place on the worship table, or to hold.
- If you are in need of support, grief resources or referrals, please contact Stephanie. In addition, the grief resource library of the Bereavement Ministry Team is housed in her office for sharing.

In case of rain, the service will be held in the Chapel. The Congregational Care Bereavement Ministry Team is the sponsor of this service.

"Therefore, since we are surrounded by so great a cloud of witnesses...let us run with perseverance the race that is set before us, looking to Jesus the pioneer and perfecter of our faith...." (Hebrews 12:1-2)

GENEROSITY 2026

We are people with a vision. We are people who trust and live out God's Word. By doing so, we see "a way in the wilderness" and the "rivers in the desert." We may even become the way and the water for others Living Out the Word.

Did You Know? Benevolence

We give 750K annually to benevolent partners. Some of the partners are listed below:

Matthew 25

The work of Matthew 25 Ministries helps the poorest of the poor and disaster victims throughout the United States and around the world.

With the help of our volunteers, donated goods are processed at our over 300,000 square-foot Processing Center in Cincinnati, Ohio and then shipped via forty-foot seagoing containers and by semi-trailers to the poorest of the poor and disaster victims.

Oasis Center

Oasis Center provides a wide range of opportunities that reflect the diverse needs of youth and their families, from crisis intervention to youth leadership and community engagement to college and career access.

Renewal House

To treat, promote healing, and provide housing for women and their children affected by substance use disorders.

We are grateful for how you have stepped up to keep us going and growing. We hope you can consider a 4% increase in your support. God is doing a new thing that we need to discover together!

QUESTIONS FOR CHILDREN AND THEIR FAMILIES:

LIVING OUT THE WORD

In this passage in Ephesians, it says "with the eyes of your heart, enlightened". I think in this phrase the writer is asking us to "see" differently, not just what is in front of us. If we saw other people the way God sees them, what would change? Can you see when someone's feelings are hurt or when someone might feel left out? How can we show we care when we notice someone else's feelings?
