

Fifth Sunday after the Epiphany

February 8, 2026

GATHERING

(Silence during the Prelude is requested in preparation for worship.)

PRELUDE

Felix Mendelssohn

Adagio, Op. 65 No. 1

*CALL TO WORSHIP

Let us worship God! (Those who are able may stand.)

People of God, why are you here? We gather to worship with our hearts and our lives.

People of God, who do you worship?

We worship God, who loves us and teaches us to love.

People of God, how do you worship?

We worship God by breaking the bonds of injustice and freeing the oppressed.

People of God, come, let us worship God, whose glory surrounds us!

May our worship demonstrate God's glory in our neighborhood, community, and the whole earth.

*PRAYER OF THE DAY

The Lord be with you. And also with you.

God of mystery and of judgment, who has made us to be salt and light in a tasteless, shadowed world, guide us in this time of worship.

Grant us understanding and spiritual discernment so that others may see your good works through us, give you the glory, and be moved to serve you. Amen.

I Want to Walk as a Child of the Light

HOUSTON

CALL TO CONFESSION

We who have received much have not always been grateful. We who have been called to work with God for the good of others as well as ourselves have often been selfish. In the knowledge of our weakness, ignorance and deliberate choice, let us confess our sins to Almighty God.

377 I Want to Walk as a Child of the Light

PRAYER OF CONFESSION

Merciful God, You call us to be salt of the earth and light of the world.
We confess that our witness is often bland and gloomy.
Forgive us when we fail to be an influence for good,
and when we condone or do what is wrong in Your sight.
Help us to flavor the earth with righteousness
and to reflect the light of Your love in a dark world;
through Jesus Christ, the Light of the world. Amen.

AFFIRMATION OF FAITH

(from The Confession of 1967)

We believe: The life, death, resurrection, and promised coming of Jesus Christ has set the pattern for the church's mission. His human life involves the church in the common life of all people. His service to men and women commits the church to work for every form of human well-being. His suffering makes the church sensitive to all human suffering so that it sees the face of Christ in the faces of persons in every kind of need. His crucifixion discloses to the church God's judgment on the inhumanity that marks human relations, and the awful consequences of the church's own complicity in injustice. In the power of the risen Christ and the hope of his coming, the church sees the promise of God's renewal of human life in society and of God's victory over all wrong. The church follows this pattern in the form of its life and in the method of its action. So to live and serve is to confess Christ as Lord. Amen.

THANKSGIVING

OFFERING

Anthem

He Comes to Us

Jane M. Marshall

He comes to us as One unknown,
without a name, without a name,
as of old, by the lakeside He came,
He came to those men who knew Him not,
He speaks to us, He speaks the same word:
"Follow! Follow! Follow thou me!"
and sets us to the tasks which
He has to fulfill for our time.

He commands.
And to those who obey Him,
whether they be wise or simple,
He will reveal Himself, reveal Himself
in the toils, the conflicts, the sufferings which they shall pass through
in His fellowship,
and, as an ineffable mystery,
they shall learn, shall learn,
shall learn in their own experience
Who He is.

O Morning Star, how fair and bright
Thou beamest forth in truth and light!
O Sovereign meek and lowly.

Thou Root of Jesse, David's Son,
My Lord and Master, Thou hast won
My heart to serve Thee solely!

Thou art holy, Fair and glorious,
all victorious, Rich in blessing,
Rule and might o'er all possessing.

*DOXOLOGY

LASST UNS ERFREUEN

Praise God, from whom all blessings flow;
Praise God, all creatures here below: Alleluia! Alleluia!
Praise God, the source of all our gifts!
Praise Jesus Christ, whose power uplifts!
Praise the Spirit, Holy Spirit! Alleluia! Alleluia! Alleluia!

*PRAYER OF THANKSGIVING

God, we give these gifts in gratitude for your blessing.
We give these gifts with hope, as we hunger and thirst for righteousness.
May our offerings of money, time, and talent be used
To comfort those who mourn, to extend mercy, to make peace,
To help us all more clearly see and live your presence in our lives and in our world. Amen.

This hymn is a testimony of experience. The original seven-stanza German text (based on Psalm 55:22) and its tune were created by the author/composer at the age of twenty in thanksgiving for finding employment many weeks after being left almost penniless following a robbery.

Our Mission

Ordinary people testifying to the extraordinary light found in our Lord Jesus Christ.

"For it is the God who said, 'Let light shine out of darkness,' who has shone in our hearts to give the light of the knowledge of the glory of God in the face of Jesus Christ. But we have this treasure in clay jars, so that it may be made clear that this extraordinary power belongs to God and does not come from us."

(2 Corinthians 4:6-7)
