CONCERNS OF THE CHURCH

*CALL TO WORSHIP

Let us worship God!

(Those who are able may stand.)

God, the source all blessings welcomes us.

We come blessed and grateful.

Blessed are the merciful, the pure of heart, the peacemakers,
For they will we receive mercy, see in God, and be called children of God

Why shall we come before the Lord?

We come before the lord to serve, praise, and give thanks.

God invites us.

We are all welcome here.

God is the source of all of our blessings let us gather together to worship.

About the Prelude

The Prelude is a musical offering to help move the hearts and minds of the gathering community from the daily struggles of life to the worship of God.

PRELUDE

Elegy

Harold Darke

*PRAYER OF THE DAY

The Lord be with you. And also with you.

Dear Lord, thank you for another day to live and be grateful for all the blessings you give - providing for us and all creation, and being a loving God.

Help us walk humbly with you.

Thank you for granting us times of peace, stillness, beauty, for the gift of sunrise, and Percy Warner Park, and for the life you breathe in us. Let us return these gifts of love by following Jesus.

Help us walk humbly with you.

Thank you for the leadership of the Church as they have guided us through confirmation class. Thank you for the kindness of our congregation, for the people in these pews, hallways, columbarium, who helped to nurture our faith.

Help us walk humbly with you.

Although our actions may contradict kindness and our own wellbeing, you still adore us oh God no matter the circumstances.

Help us walk humbly with you

God be with Westminster as we all continue our faith journey.
Help us to be the more and more the people you've made us to be.

Help us walk humbly with you.

Help us speak truth from the heart and continue growing in the knowledge of your everlasting love.

Help us walk humbly with you.

Thank you oh God for being full of surprises, working for the best of us all, and wanting to be with us even when we're having a hard time.

Help us walk humbly with you. Amen.

*HYMN 711

About Hymn 711

Lord of All Good

CALL TO CONFESSION

The truth is we do not immediately seek justice, love kindness or walk humbly with God.

The truth is that we are far from perfect.

The truth is that God's steadfast love never ceases and God's mercies never come to an end.

The truth is that we come to confession trusting in the gracious mercy of God.

Let us confess what is true about God and about ourselves.

PRAYER OF CONFESSION

We confess, oh God, that we are impatient. We lack compassion. We practice envy and distraction. We do not always consider the poor. Melt away our entitlement and greed like you melted the ice from the ice storm. Clear the fallen trees off the roads of our hearts, so we can walk humbly with you. Remind us that You are able to accomplish abundantly far more than all we can ask or imagine. For the sake of your son, our savior, Jesus Christ, forgive us of our wrongdoings, to the Glory of your name, to all generations, forever and ever. Amen.

A pastor wrote this text for a Christmas fair, which perhaps added echoes to the words "gifts" and "give" in the first two stanzas. But no hints are needed to grasp the full meaning of this hymn's final line. The text is set to a shortened form of a widely used Genevan tune.

Call to and Prayer of Confession

A call to confession expresses God's initiative in calling for repentance and promising forgiveness in Christ. As members of Christ's body, we confess the reality of sin, captivity, and brokenness in personal and common life and ask for God's saving grace.

Assurance of Pardon

A declaration of forgiveness proclaims the good news of God's mercy and offers the assurance of pardon in Jesus' name. The liturgist pours water into the font, which reminds us of the grace and cleansing of our Baptism, and the baptismal call to new life in Christ.

(Silent confession)

Kyrie

James MacMillan

(Sung responsively by the choir and congregation)

Choir: Congregation:
Lord, have mer - cy. Lord, have mer - cy. Christ, have mer - cy. Christ, have mer - cy. Lord, have mer - cy. Lord, have mer - cy.

ASSURANCE OF PARDON

Remember, God's love never ends. Remember, God's love never fails. Every day, every moment, in darkness and in light, in all times and in all places we can walk humbly with this truth. God's love is unconditional and nothing can diminish it. God does not give up on us. Hear and remember the good news:

In Jesus Christ we are forgiven.

The Peace

Let us forgive one another as God forgives us. Let us be a part of God's kingdom - opening our hearts to serve and respond to the needs of those who struggle and mourn. Let us sit with the lonely, grieve with the sad. Let us find ways to be a part of God's Kingdom at school, without families, at work, and with those we notice need extra care. Let us stand up for each other, especially those experiencing injustice. Let our Westminster community love like God loves us.

May the peace of Christ be with you all. And also with you.

*(Please exchange the peace with the words,
"The peace of Christ be with you.")*

PRAYERS OF THE PEOPLE

Holy God, fill us with gratitude and praise as we come to know the hope and joy we have in You. Thank you for rooting us in the love of Jesus at Westminster.

You have told us what is good.

We pray now for the world. Peace for the fearful, water for the thirsty, shelter for the lonely, love for the broken, safety for the vulnerable, and for all young people and children throughout the world - that they would have a safe place to learn and grow like we do.

You have told us what is good.

We pray for our nation - bless all of us with understanding for those who think differently than we do. Unify our country, may the relationships our people be stronger than our politics.

You have told us what is good.

As we remember ongoing recovery from the ice storm, we pray for our city and its leaders. May we seek justice and love kindness in our Nashville family. May we love, help and respect each other - especially those in need of shelter, warmth, and comfort.

You have told us what is good.

We pray for the places we work, the places we play, and the places we go to school. Help us do what is right, speak truth from the heart, and not slander or gossip against our friends, coworkers, classmates or peers. Help us be enders of drama not starters of it.

You have told us what is good.

We pray for our church. Thank you for our leaders, mentors, fellow confirmands, future confirmands, and all the saints that make up Westminster. Thank you for calling us personally and calling us together to be a part of the Body of Christ.

You have told us what is good.

Bless all the members of our families with safety. We pray for peace among siblings. And we pray that the relationships we have in our homes would be ones where we can practice, receive, and experience your love.

You have told us what is good.

Now to the One who by the power at work within us is able to accomplish abundantly far more than all we can ask or imagine, to God be glory in the church and in Christ Jesus to all generations, forever and ever. Amen.

Offering

The collection of tithes and offerings takes place as a response to the Word. These actions are signs of our gratitude for the grace of God proclaimed in the gospel.

A short hymn of praise to the triune God (God, Jesus Christ, Holy Spirit).

About Hymn 691

Written for the confirmation of the author's son, this text of self-dedication also voices our recurring individual need to recommit ourselves in less formal ways. The familiar shape note tune enhances a sense of finding our place among God's people from all times and places.

Our Mission

Ordinary people testifying to the extraordinary light found in our Lord Jesus Christ.

"For it is the God who said, 'Let light shine out of darkness,' who has shone in our hearts to give the light of the knowledge of the glory of God in the face of Jesus Christ. But we have this treasure in clay jars, so that it may be made clear that this extraordinary power belongs to God and does not come from us."

(2 Corinthians 4:6-7)
