

Andy Kramer

Andy joined Westminster in 2007. Since that time he has been involved in a variety of church activities including coordinating for the Young Adults Sunday School class, chairing the Adult Education committee, chairing Habitat for Humanity and being involved with the senior high youth ministry. Andy is currently a member of the Children's committee and helps as a rotation teacher for the elementary Sunday School.

A graduate of Penn State University, Andy is in a sales role with Boise Cascade. He is married to Claire Harris Kramer and they have two daughters Kate (7) and Lucy (3).
