

Kathleen Simcoe

Kathleen joined Westminster in 2015 with her husband, Owen, after returning to Nashville. Kathleen and Owen have two children- Miller (9) and Ellen (6)- who are also active in many programs at Westminster. Kathleen has previously served on the session, chaired the Children's Committee, co-chaired the New Member Committee, and taught Sunday School for pre-school and elementary- aged children.

Kathleen graduated from Vanderbilt University and has a background in special education. She currently serves as the Director of Early Childhood and Community Engagement at the Vanderbilt Kennedy Center's Autism Center (TRIAD).