

Ken Garrison

Ken was born and raised in South Carolina; he was baptized in the Easley Presbyterian Church and grew up involved in the church and in Scouting. He and Catherine were married at Westminster by the Rev. Pat McGeachy after attending WPC while students at Vanderbilt. They lived in Little Silver, NJ, for over thirty-five years before retiring to Nashville and joining WPC in 2016. Ken's career spanned several aspects of technology from astronomy to international telecommunications, the latter at AT&T Bell Laboratories. He was ordained as an elder at the First Presbyterian Church of Red Bank, NJ, and time there included serving on a PNC and the presbytery COM. At Westminster, Ken has been involved in Habitat, Home Connection, Living Waters, the Disaster Response team, many of the adult education classes, and he recently chaired the Benevolence Committee. Their daughter and son-in-law live in Lebanon, TN.
