

Margaret Wheeler

Margaret Wheeler and her husband, Charlie, joined Westminster in 1982. She graduated from the University of Tennessee (GO VOLS!) and is a retired physical therapist.

Margaret has served on the Worship, Kindergarten, and Habitat for Humanity Committees. She has taught Sunday school, participated in a HOST dinner group, volunteered with Room in the Inn, and co-chaired the Women's Covenant Group. Margaret completed Disciple I-IV and is in the Thursday morning Theology class, serves as an usher, and is on the Wedding Guild.

Margaret and Charlie have two sons, John and Mark, who grew up at Westminster, and have three grandchildren.
