

Ned Hildebrand

Ned and his wife, Dana, have two boys, Noah (6) and Elliott (4). Ned is a Nashville native, having grown up in the Church and raised just a few blocks away. Since re-joining with his family in 2022, Ned has become active with the Church. He teaches Sunday School for high school students and volunteers as an innkeeper for Room in the Inn. He also served on the Associate Pastor Nominating Committee. Professionally, Ned is a private practice attorney. Ned also spends a considerable amount of time coaching a competitive high school mock trial team—one of his greatest passions.