

In Genesis 28, Jacob has a powerful dream where he sees a stairway set up on earth, reaching all the way to heaven. He feels God's presence in a powerful way, and when he wakes up, he builds a special stone tower to represent this experience. Connect the dots to illustrate this story. By the stones, write a time you felt God's presence in a powerful way.

FOLLOW the PATH

How does Paul encourage us in Romans 8 to wait for what we do not yet see? Follow the path of letters, and each time you come to a capital letter, write that letter down at the bottom of the page. When you get to the end of the path, see Paul's encouragement spelled out below.

WORD SEARCH
