

Fifteenth Sunday after Pentecost

Holy Communion

September 6, 2026

About the Prelude

The Prelude is a musical offering to help move the hearts and minds of the gathering community from the daily struggles of life to the worship of God.

Worship on the Lord's Day

Worship begins as the people gather - greeting one another, praying in silence, or offering music to the glory of God. The act of assembling in Jesus' name bears witness to the Church's identity and mission as Christ's body in the world.

GATHERING

CONCERNS OF THE CHURCH

PRELUDE

arr. David N. Johnson

Of the Father's Love Begotten

*CALL TO WORSHIP

Let us worship God!

(Those who are able may stand.)

A new song awaits us;
God's Spirit is coming.
Neighbors from far and wide will pour out from their doorways.
God's joy will be alive in the streets;
friends and strangers will gather.
All will rejoice;
together, we will breathe
a deep sigh of peace as we turn our hearts toward the justice of the Lord.

*PRAYER OF THE DAY

The Lord be with you. And also with you.

God of goodness,
when we gather, we are with you.
Bind us together in your promise, that our dark nights will soon be over,
and the brightness of day will be near.
The hour has come. Salvation is here.
Let us be your light.
Let us be your love. Amen.

(The Cross and Bible lead the procession, symbolic of the centrality in worship of Jesus Christ - the Living Word, and the Bible - the written Word.)

*PROCESSIONAL HYMN 1

All thy works shall praise thy name, in earth and sky and sea.

Much of the imagery of this hymn comes from Revelation 4:2–11, which its author, an Anglican bishop, knew as a reading appointed for Trinity Sunday. The tune, written specifically for this text, reinforces the Trinitarian theme by strong dependence on the D-major triad.

ho - ly,

Ho - ly, ho - ly, ho - ly! mer - ci - ful and might - y!

CALL TO CONFESSION

Let us lay aside the works of evil and put on the armor of goodness.
Let us live honorably, putting on the Lord Jesus Christ, to whom we confess now.

PRAYER OF CONFESSION

Gracious Savior,
you have made your law clear:
Love. Love one another.
Owe one another nothing but love.
Do no wrong to a neighbor.
But we have not mastered what it is to love.
We have fallen short, causing harm to others through careless action and thoughtless lack of action.
Forgive us.
Teach us how to love more fully,
more perfectly, as generously as you love, following your law and fulfilling your will through Christ
our Lord. Amen.

(Silent confession)

Kyrie

Lord, have mer-cy, Lord, have mer-cy. Christ, have mer-cy, Christ, have mer-cy. Lord, have mer-cy, Lord, have mer-cy.

Call to and Prayer of Confession

A call to confession expresses God's initiative in calling for repentance and promising forgiveness in Christ. As members of Christ's body, we confess the reality of sin, captivity, and brokenness in personal and common life and ask for God's saving grace.

About the Kyrie
The Kyrie (Greek "kyrios" [Lord]) is a corporate musical prayer for grace.

ASSURANCE OF PARDON

Believe the Good News:
In Jesus Christ we are forgiven!

The Peace

Since God in Christ has forgiven us, let us also forgive one another.

The peace of Christ be with you.
And also with you.

*(Please exchange the peace with the words,
“The peace of Christ be with you.”)*

*AFFIRMATION OF FAITH

The life, death, resurrection, and promised coming of Jesus Christ has set the pattern for the church's mission.
His human life involves the church in the common life of all people.
His service to men and women commits the church to work for every form of human well-being.
His suffering makes the church sensitive to all human suffering so that it sees the face of Christ in the faces of persons in every kind of need.
His crucifixion discloses to the church
God's judgment on the inhumanity that marks human relations, and the awful consequences of the church's own complicity in injustice.
In the power of the risen Christ and the hope of his coming, the church sees the promise of God's renewal of human life in society and of God's victory over all wrong.
The church follows this pattern in the form of its life and in the method of its action.
So to live and serve is to confess Christ as Lord.

Adapted from the Confession of 1967, 9.32-33

THANKSGIVING

OFFERING

Anthem

Thomas Atwood

Teach Me, O Lord

Teach me, O Lord, the way of Thy statutes;
And I shall keep it unto the end.

Offering

The collection of tithes and offerings takes place as a response to the Word. These actions are signs of our gratitude for the grace of God proclaimed in the gospel.

To give, please scan the QR code below:

A short hymn of praise to the triune
God (God, Jesus Christ, Holy Spirit).

*DOXOLOGY

LASST UNS ERFREUEN

Praise God, from whom all blessings flow; Praise God, all creatures here below: Alleluia! Alleluia!
Praise God, the source of all our gifts!
Praise Jesus Christ, whose power uplifts!
Praise the Spirit, Holy Spirit! Alleluia! Alleluia! Alleluia!

*GREAT PRAYER OF THANKSGIVING

The Lord be with you. And also with you.
Lift up your hearts. We lift them to the Lord.
Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.
It is right to give our thanks and praise.

Eternal God, holy and mighty, it is truly right and our greatest joy to give you thanks and praise, and to worship you in every place where your glory abides...

Therefore we praise you, joining our voices with the heavenly choirs and with all the faithful of every time and place, who forever sing to the glory of your name:

ALL:

Ho - ly, ho - ly, ho - ly Lord. God of pow - er and might. Heav - en and earth are full of your glo - ry. Ho - san - na, ho - san - na, ho - san - na in the high - est! Bles - sed is he who comes, he who comes in the name of the Lord. Ho - san - na, ho - san - na, ho - san - na in the high - est!

(The congregation may be seated.)

You are holy, O God of majesty, and blessed is Jesus Christ, your Son, our Lord...

Accept this our sacrifice of praise and thanksgiving as a living and holy offering of ourselves, that our lives may proclaim the one crucified and risen Christ. Great is the mystery of faith:

Christ has died, Christ is ris - en, Christ will come a - gain.

Gracious God, pour out your Holy Spirit upon us and upon these gifts of bread and cup, that the bread we break and the cup we bless may be the communion of the body and blood of Christ...

Give us strength to serve you faithfully until the promised day of resurrection, when with the redeemed of all the ages we will feast with you at your table in glory. Through Christ, with Christ, in Christ, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, all glory and honor are yours, eternal God, now and forever.

THE LORD'S PRAYER

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name,
thy kingdom come,
thy will be done,
on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread;
and forgive us our debts,
as we forgive our debtors;
and lead us not into temptation,
but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom, and the power,
and the glory, forever. Amen.

BREAKING OF THE BREAD

COMMUNION OF THE PEOPLE

Music during Communion

Anthem

Lloyd Pfautsch

Seek to Serve

May I live in the world as one who always seeks to serve.
May I live as one who knows the love of God.
Lord, teach me how to live and how to serve.
With my ears may I hear. With my eyes may I see.
With my lips may I speak. May your Word be heard through me.
Thus as I live each day may love sustain the will to serve.
Amen.

The bread served in today's communion is gluten-free.

This text and this tune occur in almost all English-language hymnals (though not always together). The transforming power of love motivates the unending praise of the life to come, and this fine Welsh tune (whose name means “delightful”) gives us a foretaste of endless song.

Our Mission

Ordinary people testifying to the extraordinary light found in our Lord Jesus Christ.

"For it is the God who said, 'Let light shine out of darkness,' who has shone in our hearts to give the light of the knowledge of the glory of God in the face of Jesus Christ. But we have this treasure in clay jars, so that it may be made clear that this extraordinary power belongs to God and does not come from us."

Sweet Moments and Meaningful Connections

A Hands On Mission Mini-Grant recently helped Karen Richardson turn a caring idea into action for older adults at Green Hills Apartments. Through a Sweet Treats Afternoon at Elliston Place Soda Shop and a Bee Kind Creative Morning at Westminster, residents enjoyed dessert, coffee, crafting, conversation, and new connections. With support from Joy in Learning and volunteer drivers, these gatherings helped ease isolation and reminded participants that they are seen and valued. The residents' bee-watering flowers will also provide a lasting gift for their community garden. This is what HOM Mini-Grants are all about: using our everyday gifts to share God's love in meaningful ways.

Apply for a Hands On Mission Mini-Grant Today!

You don't have to do something huge to make a real difference.

Maybe your "what if" is someone else's answered prayer.
