

Eighteenth Sunday after Pentecost
September 27, 2026

About the Prelude

The Prelude is a musical offering to help move the hearts and minds of the gathering community from the daily struggles of life to the worship of God.

Worship on the Lord's Day

Worship begins as the people gather - greeting one another, praying in silence, or offering music to the glory of God. The act of assembling in Jesus' name bears witness to the Church's identity and mission as Christ's body in the world.

About Hymn 16

The German original of this hymn contained too many stanzas to sustain a unified theme. The four selected here place humankind in the midst of creation and form an effective song of praise to the Creator. As the tune name suggests, the music was later composed for these words.

PRELUDE

*CALL TO WORSHIP

Let us worship God!

(Those who are able may stand.)

We lift up our souls to you, Holy God.

We trust the Lord with our past, present, and future.

Teach us, Lord, that we may know your ways.

Guide our every move, Holy One, that we may walk in your paths of love and mercy.

Let us worship the One who leads us in what is right.

Together, let us worship God!

*PRAYER OF THE DAY

The Lord be with you.

And also with you.

Send your Spirit, faithful God!

Instill in us the mind of Christ!

Bind us together in joy and affection as we come,

that we may leave looking to the welfare of others

as well as those we love. In Jesus' name, AMEN.

(The Cross and Bible lead the procession, symbolic of the centrality in worship of Jesus Christ - the Living Word, and the Bible - the written Word.)

PRAYER OF CONFESSION

The Lord be with you. And also with you.

God of generosity,
we find ourselves bitter
when faced with your abundant grace.
We believe ourselves more deserving than others.
We nurse our anger and resentment at those you forgive,
instead of rejoicing in the abundant love you show.
Forgive us when we wish your grace was scarce.
Forgive the double standards we hold.
Help us to know that we are all in need of your grace, and help us rejoice as we all gratefully receive your mercy.

Call to and Prayer of Confession

A call to confession expresses God's initiative in calling for repentance and promising forgiveness in Christ. As members of Christ's body, we confess the reality of sin, captivity, and brokenness in personal and common life and ask for God's saving grace.

About the Kyrie
The Kyrie (Greek "kyrios" [Lord]) is a corporate musical prayer for grace.

ASSURANCE OF PARDON

Believe the Good News: In Jesus Christ we are forgiven!

The Peace

Since God in Christ has forgiven us, let us also forgive one another.

The peace of Christ be with you. And also with you.

(Please exchange the peace with the words,
"The peace of Christ be with you.")

Assurance of Pardon

A declaration of forgiveness proclaims the good news of God's mercy and offers the assurance of pardon in Jesus' name. The liturgist pours water into the font, which reminds us of the grace and cleansing of our Baptism, and the baptismal call to new life in Christ.

The Act of Praise brings together the choir and congregation to sing God's praise in response to the Assurance of Pardon as the last phrase.

Children's Time will happen at both services when we do not have communion or baptisms.

ACT OF PRAISE

HYMN 372

O for a World

AZMON

AFFIRMATION OF FAITH

The life, death, resurrection, and promised coming of Jesus Christ has set the pattern for the church's mission.
His human life involves the church in the common life of all people.
His service to men and women commits the church to work for every form of human well-being.
His suffering makes the church sensitive to all human suffering so that it sees the face of Christ in the faces of persons in every kind of need.
His crucifixion discloses to the church
God's judgment on the inhumanity that marks human relations, and the awful consequences of the church's own complicity in injustice.
In the power of the risen Christ and the hope of his coming, the church sees the promise of God's renewal of human life in society and of God's victory over all wrong.
The church follows this pattern in the form of its life
and in the method of its action.
So to live and serve is to confess Christ as Lord.

Adapted from the Confession of 1967, 9.32–33

The Sermon

The sermon, based on the scripture read in worship, proclaims the good news of the risen Lord and presents the gift and calling of the gospel. Through the sermon, we encounter Jesus Christ in God's word, are equipped to follow him more faithfully, and are inspired to proclaim the gospel to others through our words and deeds.

About Hymn 372

Everything longed for in this text is a reminder of how far our present world is from what God wants. Yet this is not just wishful thinking; it is a call to action, a summons to participate in the fulfillment of God's desire for all earth's people to live in radical shalom.

1 O for a world where ev - ery - one re-spects each oth - er's ways,
2 O for a world where goods are shared and mis - er - y re-lieved,
3 We wel-come one world fam - i - ly and strug - gle with each choice
4 The poor are rich; the weak are strong; the fool - ish ones are wise.
5 O for a world pre - par - ing for God's glo - rious reign of peace, where love is lived and all is done with jus - tice and with praise.

where truth is spo - ken, chil-dren spared, e - qual - i - ty a - chieved.
that o - pens us to u - ni - ty and gives our vi - sion voice.
Tell all who mourn: out-casts be - long, who per - ish - es will rise.
where time and tears will be no more, and all but love will cease.

Everything longed for in this text is a reminder of how far our present world is from what God wants. Yet this is not just wishful thinking; it is a call to action, a summons to participate in the fulfillment of God's desire for all earth's people to live in radical shalom.

The Christ Hymn

May the mind of Christ my Savior live in me from day to day, by His love and pow'r controlling all I do and say.

May the Word of God dwell richly in my heart from hour to hour, so that all may see

I triumph only through His pow'r.

May the Love of Jesus fill me as the waters fill the sea;
Him exalting, self abasing, this is victory.

Live in me, dwell in me, may Your Spirit shine through me.
May the world around me see Jesus, only.

May the peace of God, my Father, rule my life in ev'ry thing, that I may be calm to comfort sick and sorrowing.

May His beauty rest upon me as I seek the lost to win,
and may they forget the channel, seeing only Him.

May I run the race before me, strong and brave to face the foe, looking only unto Jesus as I onward go.

May the mind of Christ live in me.

11:00 AM

Lee Hoiby

Let This Mind Be in You

Let this mind be in you,
which was also in Christ Jesus:
who, being in the form of God,
thought it not robbery to be equal with God:

But made himself of no reputation,
and took upon him the form of a servant,
and was made in the likeness of men,
and being found in fashion as a man,
he humbled himself, and became obedient unto death,
even the death of the cross.

Wherefore God also hath highly exalted him,
and given him a name which is above ev'ry name:
that at the name of Jesus ev'ry knee should bow,
of things in heaven, and things in earth,
and things under the earth;
and that ev'ry tongue should confess that Jesus Christ is Lord, to the glory of God the Father.

Praise God, all creatures here below: Alleluia! Alleluia!
Praise God, the source of all our gifts!
Praise Jesus Christ, whose power uplifts!
Praise the Spirit, Holy Spirit! Alleluia! Alleluia! Alleluia!

PRAYER OF THANKSGIVING

The Lord be with you. And also with you.
Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.
It is right to give our thanks and praise.

Generous God,
You give us so many good things.
We bring our gifts to you as a way of saying thank you.
Accept and bless all that we bring, and all that we are,
and use us and our gifts to serve you.
In the name of Jesus, Amen.

Our Mission

Ordinary people testifying to the extraordinary light found in our Lord Jesus Christ.

"For it is the God who said, 'Let light shine out of darkness,' who has shone in our hearts to give the light of the knowledge of the glory of God in the face of Jesus Christ. But we have this treasure in clay jars, so that it may be made clear that this extraordinary power belongs to God and does not come from us."

Lincoln at Gettysburg: The Words that Remade America
Led by Carole Bucy

In a masterly work, award-winning author Garry Wills shows how Lincoln reached back to the Declaration of Independence to write the greatest speech in the nation's history.

The power of words has rarely been given a more compelling demonstration than in the Gettysburg Address. Lincoln was asked to memorialize the gruesome battle. Instead he gave the whole nation "a new birth of freedom" in the space of a mere 272 words. His entire life and previous training and his deep political experience went into this, his revolutionary masterpiece.
