About the Prelude

The Prelude is a musical offering to help move the hearts and minds of the gathering community from the daily struggles of life to the worship of God.

Worship on the Lord's Day

Worship begins as the people gather - greeting one another, praying in silence, or offering music to the glory of God. The act of assembling in Jesus' name bears witness to the Church's identity and mission as Christ's body in the world.

About Hymn 265

This hymn is a classic example of how Isaac Watts Christianized the Psalms, in this case Psalm 72:5-19, by turning their messianic language to New Testament equivalents. The tune was at first nameless and anonymous, but is now called by the address of the supposed composer.

GATHERING

CONCERNS OF THE CHURCH

PRELUDE

Malcolm Archer

Trio on "All for Jesus"

*CALL TO WORSHIP

Let us worship God!

(Those who are able may stand.)

From north and south, from east and west, we come.
From down the street and from across the world, we gather.

Christ invites us here, making us one body.

Come, let us worship God with joy and praise, knowing that at this table, we are home.

*PRAYER OF THE DAY

The Lord be with you. And also with you.

Gracious God,
we thank you for being ever present with us.
We know that we are never alone.
Your mercies have been faithful and rich.
Pour out your Spirit upon us, that we might do the work of your will.
In the name of the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit.
Amen.

(The Cross and Bible lead the procession, symbolic of the centrality in worship of Jesus Christ - the Living Word, and the Bible - the written Word.)

CALL TO CONFESSION

If we say we have no sin,
we deceive ourselves, and the truth is not in us.
If we can confess our sins,
God, who is faithful and just, will forgive us our sins and cleanse us from all unrighteousness.

(1 John 1:8-9)

Let us confess our sins against God and one another.

PRAYER OF CONFESSION

Gracious God, our sins are too heavy to carry, too real to hide, and too deep to undo.
Forgive what our lips tremble to name,
what our hearts can no longer bear, and what has become for us a consuming fire of judgment.
Set us free from a past that we cannot change;
open us to a future in which we can be changed;
and grant us grace to grow more and more in your likeness and image;
through Jesus Christ, the light of the world. Amen.

(Silent confession)

Call to and Prayer of Confession

A call to confession expresses God's initiative in calling for repentance and promising forgiveness in Christ. As members of Christ's body, we confess the reality of sin, captivity, and brokenness in personal and common life and ask for God's saving grace.

About the Kyrie
The Kyrie (Greek "kyrios" [Lord]) is a corporate musical prayer for grace.

The Act of Praise brings together the choir and congregation to sing God's praise in response to the Assurance of Pardon as the last phrase.

ASSURANCE OF PARDON

Believe the Good News:
In Jesus Christ we are forgiven!

The Peace

Since God in Christ has forgiven us, let us also forgive one another.

The peace of Christ be with you.
And also with you.

*(Please exchange the peace with the words,
"The peace of Christ be with you.")*

ACT OF PRAISE (Hymn 513)

FESTIVAL CANTICLE

This Is the Feast of Victory

(The congregation is invited to sing with the choir.)

Refrain: This is the feast of victory for our God.
Alleluia, alleluia, alleluia!

Sing with all the people of God,
and join in the hymn of all creation. Refrain.

61 Your Law, O Lord, Is Perfect

(Psalm 19)

1 Your law, O Lord, is per - fect, the sim - ple mak - ing wise;
 2 More to be sought than rich - es, your words are my soul's wealth;
 3 My strength and my re - deem - er, law - giv - er and true light, how pure are your com - mand - ments, en - light - en - ing my eyes!

 their taste is sweet like hon - ey, im - part - ing life and health.
 my words and med - i - ta - tions make wor - thy in your sight.

Celebrating God's law in this paraphrase of the second half of Psalm 19 may seem odd if "law" is thought of simply as a list of things not to do. But in Jewish understanding, the law is seen as a gift, because it provides the signposts that show how to live as the people of God.

"Moving On"

Donovan Drake

(A moment for meditation)

AFFIRMATION OF FAITH

Let the same mind be in you that was in Christ Jesus, who, though he existed in the form of God, did not regard equality with God as something to be grasped, but emptied himself, taking the form of a slave, assuming human likeness.

And being found in appearance as a human, he humbled himself and became obedient to the point of death— even death on a cross.

Therefore God exalted him even more highly and gave him the name that is above every other name, so that at the name given to Jesus every knee should bend, in heaven and on earth and under the earth, and every tongue should confess that Jesus Christ is Lord, to the glory of God the Father.

THANKSGIVING

OFFERING

Anthem

Paul Leddington Wright (8:30 AM)

John Gardner (11:00 AM)

Fight the Good Fight

Fight the good fight with all thy might,
Christ is thy strength, and Christ thy right;
Lay hold on life, and it shall be Thy joy and crown eternally.

Run the straight race through God's good grace,
Life up thine eyes and seek God's face;
Life with its way before us lies,
Christ is the path, and Christ the prize.

Cast care aside, lean on thy guide:
His boundless mercy will provide;
Trust, and thy trusting soul shall prove Christ is its life, and Christ its love.

Faint not, nor fear, his arms are near;
 He changeth not, and thou art dear;
 Only believe, and thou shalt see
 That Christ is all in all to thee.

Amen.

Doxology

A short hymn of praise to the triune
 God (God, Jesus Christ, Holy Spirit).

*DOXOLOGY

LASST UNS ERFREUEN

Praise God, from whom all blessings flow; Praise God, all creatures here below: Alleluia! Alleluia!
 Praise God, the source of all our gifts!
 Praise Jesus Christ, whose power uplifts!
 Praise the Spirit, Holy Spirit! Alleluia! Alleluia! Alleluia!

*GREAT PRAYER OF THANKSGIVING

The Lord be with you. And also with you.
 Lift up your hearts. We lift them to the Lord.
 Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.
It is right to give our thanks and praise.

Blessed are you, O Lord our God:
 You led your people out of slavery in Egypt and gave them the gift of your commandments.
 Still, you call us to follow your way of truth and life.

Therefore we praise you, joining the song of the universal church and the heavenly choir:

ALL:

Ho - ly, ho - ly, ho - ly Lord. God of pow - er and might. Heav - en and earth are full of your glo - ry. Ho - san - na, ho - san - na, ho - san - na in the high - est! Bles - sed is he who comes, he who comes in the name of the Lord. Ho - san - na, ho - san - na, ho - san - na in the high - est!

(The congregation may be seated.)

Blessed is Jesus Christ, our Savior:
 You sent Jesus, your own beloved Son,
 to announced the coming of your kingdom.
 Though the world rejected him, he did not reject us.
 Remembering your goodness and grace, we offer ourselves to you with gratitude as we share this joyful feast.

Pour out your Holy Spirit upon us and upon this bread and cup; make us one in the body and blood of Jesus Christ our Lord. Let us know Christ, in the sharing of his sufferings and in the power of his resurrection from the dead, so that we may become the people you have called.

Through the Lord Jesus Christ, in the unity of the Spirit, we bless you, God of glory, now and forever.

*THE LORD'S PRAYER

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name,
 thy kingdom come,
 thy will be done,
 on earth as it is in heaven.
 Give us this day our daily bread;
 and forgive us our debts,
 as we forgive our debtors;
 and lead us not into temptation,
 but deliver us from evil.
 For thine is the kingdom, and the power,
 and the glory, forever. Amen.

COMMUNION OF THE PEOPLE

Music during Communion

The Ways of Westminster

There's a plaque at the base of our communion table:
 In loving memory
 of Joseph Sherwood
 Harvard, minister,
 1970-1978
 Colman Harwell wrote: Mr. Harvard's relationship with the congregation became "one of mutual love."
 Harvard's "ministry of reconciliation" helped the congregation to understand that in a church, there was a place for "different philosophies."

The bread served in today's communion is gluten-free.

Eat This Bread

Refrain:

Eat this bread, drink this cup,
come to me and never be hungry.

Eat this bread, drink this cup,
trust in me and you will not thirst.

I am the bread of life,
the true bread sent from the creator. Refrain

Your ancestors ate manna in the desert, but this is the bread come down from heaven. Refrain

Anyone who eats this bread, will live forever. Refrain

If you believe and eat this bread, you will have eternal life. Refrain

Bread of the World in Mercy Broken

Bread of the world in mercy broken,
Wine of the soul in mercy shed,
By whom the words of life were spoken,
And in whose death our sins are dead.

Look on the heart by sorrow broken,
Look on the tears by sinners shed;
And be thy feast to us thy token,
That by thy grace our souls are fed.

Bread of the world in mercy broken,
Wine of the soul in mercy shed,
By whom the words of life were spoken,
And in whose death our sins are dead.

Bread of the world in mercy broken,
Amen.

Our Mission

Ordinary people testifying to the extraordinary light found in our Lord Jesus Christ.

"For it is the God who said, 'Let light shine out of darkness,' who has shone in our hearts to give the light of the knowledge of the glory of God in the face of Jesus Christ. But we have this treasure in clay jars, so that it may be made clear that this extraordinary power belongs to God and does not come from us."

Welcome

Westminster Presbyterian Church welcomes you to share our common journey to become more faithful disciples of Christ. Any who are interested in joining us in this journey are invited to contact Stephanie Boaz, sboaz@nashvillewpc.org, or call 615.292.5526, the church office.

The Ways of Westminster

Rev. KC Ptomey was pastor of Westminster from 1981-2008. Rev. Ptomey also wanted communion served more often. Westminster began serving communion each Sunday during Lent and Advent. He commissioned a cross to be carved and mounted on an eight-foot pole, carried in at the beginning of the opening procession each Sunday, and then placed on a stand at the front of the sanctuary until the recessional. The same was true for the pulpit Bible, which was carried in behind the cross and then carried out at the end of the service. The Choir then followed, and the pastors entered last. The recessional followed the same order: first the cross, followed by the Bible, the choir, and the ministers.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

Having trouble hearing during the service?

We have hearing aids available in the Narthex and instructions to download the Sennheiser MobileConnect app. The Sennheiser MobileConnect app is a Wi-Fi audio streaming solution that turns smartphones into personal listening and communication devices. It provides barrier-free hearing assistance and live translation directly through your personal headphones or hearing aids.

Stay informed with the Church Life app

If you need a little help downloading the Church Life app on your phone, please contact Hannah Boles, hboles@nashvillewpc.org. The app gives you access to the directory, your account to track pledge payments, the church calendar, and more! Just go to the Apple App Store and download it for free.

Are you up-to-date on all the WPC news?

We send emails out to the congregation and community three plus times a week. On Monday, we send an email about our mission work. On Wednesdays, we send info about all the events we have going on throughout the month. On Fridays, the Sunday info is included in the email. We also have emails from our Children's, Youth and Young Families ministries. Please scan the QR code to sign up for the emails you would like to receive.

Communion kits are available for seniors living in a residency or independently.

Please contact Sylvia Leins, srleins@yahoo.com to receive one or add someone you know to the list for the next Communion Sunday.

Radical Hospitality at Room in the Inn

Annette and Mike Crout have been volunteers with the Room In The Inn winter shelter program for over 10 years. In that time, they have witnessed first-hand how great the need is for a nourishing meal, and a warm bed for our unhoused neighbors during the cold winter months. It has been their pleasure to get to know and serve these guests at Westminster. In addition to food, fellowship and a bed, Westminster also offers laundry facilities for our guests. Sometimes the only clothes our guests own are what they are wearing, or all their clothes need to be laundered. With their $500 mini grant, the Crouths have proposed to purchase scrub sets for the men to wear while their clothes are being cleaned, new pillows for the beds, and warm socks, hats and winter gloves.

You can join the Crouths in blessing others by donating: white crew socks, stocking caps and winter gloves. (All Adult Men's Size Large). Donation bins will be in the church office.
